CALENDAR EDITION

UPCOMING EVENTS

THE ACCOUNTING CLUB will hold an open meeting at 6 p.m. Jan. 18, in 140 Violette Hall. Membership is open to accounting majors who are enrolled in or have completed Intermediate Accounting I.

STUDENTS TO ASSIST RECRUITMENT, a program sponsored by the Admissions Office, will be accepting applications to fill a limited number of openings for the spring semester. S.T.A.R. members primarily spend one and one-half hours per week calling high school prospects, although other projects may be undertaken. Main requirements are communicating well over the telephone and a willingness to spend time recruiting prospects. Applications can be picked up between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. weekdays, in the Admissions Office, 205 Administration/Humanities Building. For more information, contact Tony Koehler at 665-9431.

A TEST-OUT EXAM for the home economics course, CTR 208 Clothing Construction, will be given at 3:30 p.m. Jan. 18, in 171 Violette Hall. Passing the exam would allow entry into an advanced clothing construction class without taking this course as a prerequisite. Interested students should sign up at the home economics bulletin board or contact Joyce Hearn at 785-4480.

A DINNER THEATRE will be presented by the Student Activities Board at 6:30 p.m. Jan. 18-19 in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. "A Cottonpatch Gospel" will feature the Franklin Street Players. Admission is $7 with an SAB card or $8 without.

A SPRING BREAK TRIP to Daytona Beach, Fla., will be sponsored by the Student Activities Board. Cost for students will be $179 with an SAB card or $189 without. More information will be released at a later date.

INTERNSHIPS FOR TRAVEL ASSISTANTS are available with the Council on International Educational Exchange in New York City. The internships are for the period from January through September 1984. For further information, contact Chris Lawrence, Council on International Educational Exchange, 205 East 42nd Street, New York, NY 10017.

PI OMEGA PI national business education honor society, will hold a meeting at 5 p.m. Jan. 17, in 140 Violette Hall. The meeting is open to all interested students.
