W-2 FORMS AVAILABLE TODAY ... All currently enrolled students employed by the University may pick up their W-2 forms at the Business Office cashier window from 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Faculty and staff will receive their forms from their department secretary.

CONSTRUCTION ON NASON HALL PARKING LOT ... The Safety and Security department asks the cooperation of faculty, staff, and students in vacating the southwest half of the parking lot directly behind Nason Hall for the next several days while the Missouri Power and Light Company completes construction on the sub-station. There will also be no parking on Randolph street in this area during the construction.

ECHO PICTURES TODAY for all University secretaries, food service, and maintenance personnel who wish to be included in this year's yearbook. Interested persons should come to the Tangerine Room, SUB, at 3:45 or 5:15 p.m.

A POSTER BY JEFF RIDGWAY, junior commercial art major, has been given honorable mention in the 1976 Mid-America District VI CASE (Council for the Advancement and Support of Education) Awards Competition. Jeff, who is a graphic assistant in the University's Publications Department, entered a poster that he designed to promote the recent appearance of the Milwaukee Ballet on campus. He will receive his award at a banquet this Sunday in Kansas City.

TRUMPETERS CAT ANDERSON AND ALLAN DEAN will be the featured clinicians for a Midwest Trumpet Guild workshop this Saturday on campus. Highlights of the workshop include a clinic/recital at 10 a.m. by Dean, a performance by the University Faculty Brass Quintet at 1:30 p.m., a clinic by Anderson at 3:30 p.m., and a performance by the University's jazz bands, featuring soloist Anderson, at 8 p.m. All events will take place in Baldwin Auditorium.

LIBRARY DISPLAY ... The activities of the Business Division are illustrated in a display through Feb. 4 in Pickler Memorial Library.

INTERVIEWS with the Orchard Farm schools of St. Charles and the Fort Osage R-1 schools of Independence are scheduled for Friday at the Placements Office, Blanton Hall. Students with various education degrees will be interviewed. Appointments can be made at the Placements Office.

FACULTY NOTES ... Mary Modeen, Publications, has been asked to give a presentation on the "Elements of the Visual Arts" Feb. 14 at Ottumwa Heights College.... Leon Karel, Fine Arts, reviewed the information in an occupational brief on art teachers prepared by Chronical Guidance Publication, Inc. of Maravia, N.Y. The brief suggests that students interested in teaching aesthetic education contact him.... Mary Beveridge, Eleanor Ellebracht, and Lesley Wilson of the library staff attended a workshop on U.S. Bureau of the Census publications at the Columbia Public Library, Columbia, on January 20.... Lonny Morrow, Special Education, spoke on learning disabilities before members of Northeast Missouri Headstart Jan. 3. On Jan. 13 he made four presentations before the Iowa Annual In-Service Conference. On Jan. 15 he attended a session offered to professors of special education by project RETOOL.

THE NMSU BASKETBALL BULLDOGS will face Avila College here tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in Pershing Arena. Their next opponent is Southwest Missouri State University also here on Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

The Bulldogettes meet Southwest Missouri State basketball women at home on Saturday at 4 p.m. and St. Louis University here on Sunday at 1 p.m.

THE NMSU KOREAN KARATE (Tae Kwon Do) Club now meets every Wednesday evening and Saturday afternoon at the Ophelia Parrish gym. Times are 6-8 p.m. for beginning students and 8-10 p.m. for intermediate and advanced students on Wednesday. Saturday the meeting time is 1:30-3:30 p.m. for all. The Saturday afternoon workout is a great place to get a little exercise and learn an art form simultaneously. Everyone is welcome, beginners especially.

SCHOLARSHIPS TO STUDY ABROAD ... Rotarian Murray W. Williams of the Military Science Division announces he is accepting applications for Rotary Scholarships to study abroad in 1978-79. Scholarships, technical training awards, teachers of the handicapped, and journalism awards are available.

The Kirksville Rotary Club will receive applications up to March 1, 1977. A candidate endorsed by the Kirksville club will be interviewed by a district committee on April 9 in Columbia. Each district awards financial aid to four students.

Interested students may contact Col. Williams in his office in Nason Hall, ext. 7191 for applications and instructions.

VARIOUS HEALTH PROFESSIONS AND CAREERS will be studied by a campus committee appointed by Darrell Krueger, dean of instruction, to determine new programs that need to be initiated at Northeast. David Hanks (Science) will chair the committee with members Judy Rountree (Home Economics), Pete Sireno (Business), Jerry Mayhew (Health, Physical Education and Recreation), Richard Keith, (Practical Arts), Margaret Croker (Special Programs), and Jean Hollinrake (Nursing).

THE NEXT ISSUE OF NORTHEAST TODAY will be distributed tomorrow morning. Deadline for news items for that issue is 10:30 a.m. today. Contact Maggie Jarrett, editor, in the McKinney Center, ext. 7213.
