RE: G. H. Jamison Scholarship Fund

Mr. G. H. Jamison served our University devotedly and ably for over threescore years. His influence has touched the lives of hundreds, indeed thousands, of alumni. Several have inquired about the establishment of a scholarship fund in his honor. I am pleased to announce that such a fund has been established.

Contributions to the G. H. Jamison Scholarship Fund can be sent in care of the President's Office.

PHI BETA LAMBDA business club will hold a meeting featuring a representative from the Kirksville Chamber of Commerce at 6 tonight in 140 Violette Hall. Plans will also be finalized for the PBL State Conference. All interested students are invited to attend.

A PHYSICAL FITNESS PROGRAM, conducted by Bill Armstrong, graduate assistant in health, physical education and recreation, will be held at 8:30 tonight in the north lounge, first floor, Dobson Hall. Questions concerning running, exercising, weight training and related topics will be answered. The University community is invited to attend.

"THE SORCERER" will be the movie sponsored by the Student Activities Board at 7 and 9 p.m. Friday in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission will be free to holders of student activity cards and $1 per person to all others.

"ROAD," a rock group sponsored by the Vets Club, will perform from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight Friday at Rieger Armory. Admission will be $1.50 per person in advance or $2 per person at the door. Tickets will be on sale today and Friday in the Student Union Building. Organizations may reserve available tables for the dance at the advance ticket table in the SUB.

PZAZZ II, sponsored by the Student Activities Board, will be from 8-11:30 p.m. Saturday in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Admission is free and open to the University community.

THE SPECIAL PROGRAMS DIVISION announces that Betty Bejcek Moldenhauer, former University faculty member and now with the special education staff of the Missouri Elementary and Secondary Education Department-Jefferson City, will be on campus Friday. All faculty and staff are invited to stop by between 2:30-4 p.m. Friday at 267 Violette Hall to visit with her.

PHI DELTA KAPPA, honorary education organization, will hold a reception for those persons nominated for membership at 7 p.m. Wednesday, March 14, in Room 2 of the Student Union Building. Voting on the nominees will take place after the reception. All PDK members should attend, especially those who nominated candidates for membership.

The initiation banquet, featuring Sen. Norman Merrill as guest speaker, will be at 6 p.m. April 6 in the Georgian Room of the SUB. Tickets may be obtained from Dr. Jerry Stremel, president, 217 Administration/Humanities Building, ext. 2772. The price is $5 per ticket for members and free for candidates.

A CARDIOPULMONARY WORKSHOP, sponsored by the Military Science Division, will take place from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. March 31 and April 7 in 325 Pershing Building. The course will qualify participants for a cardiopulmonary resuscitation certification and one hour of undergraduate credit. Registration for the course, which will cost $5, is in progress in 103 Nason Hall.

SIGNUP FOR CAREER DEVELOPMENT and personal growth workshops, conducted by the Special Services staff, is in progress. Any student interested in signing up or obtaining more information about these workshops, beginning on March 19, should call the office at ext. 7228.
