TUESDAY, July 25

Delta Zeta Picnic --6:30 pm, College Park Lake

WEDNESDAY, July 26

Opening night of "She Stoops to Conquer" --8:15 pm, Ice House, Hannibal

A FREE ICE CREAM SOCIAL will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday in the Quadrangle in front of Kirk Memorial. The University Summer Band will perform as part of the Arts in the Park Series sponsored by Student Activities. In case of rain, the event will be held in the Student Activities Room of the Student Union Building. The University Community is invited to attend.

ACTIVES AND ALUMNAE of Delta Zeta social sorority are invited to a picnic at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday at College Park Lake. Those attending are asked to bring a covered dish and their own table service. For more information, contact Dr. Ruth Towne, sponsor, ext. 2785.

FALL AND SPRING issues of Windfall literary magazine will be on sale for 50 cents each from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Wednesday through Friday in the Student Union Building. Twenty-four NMSU writers have contributed to the magazine.

LAST DAY to drop courses without a "withdraw" or "withdraw failure" indication by the instructor is Friday.

THE WET T-SHIRT CONTEST cancelled because of rain on July 20 will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday during the Ice Cream Social near Kirk Memorial. Twenty-five T-shirts will be awarded to the 25 persons who come the closest in guessing the number of gallons of water used by the average hall resident in an academic year. Entries will be taken that evening. Winners will be announced in "Northeast Today" on Monday, July 31. They may pick up their T-shirts at the Physical Plant Office between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. The entire University community may participate in the contest.

A LIST OF HOUSING RENTALS available to students this fall is being compiled by the Dean of Students office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building. The list would not indicate university-approved rentals, but would be a compilation of what is available for rent since residence halls are already filled to capacity for fall. Anyone interested in having his or her rental apartments listed may call Deanna Apperson, administrative assistant to the dean of students, at ext. 7163.

"SHE STOOPS TO CONQUER," a comedy by Oliver Goldsmith about mistaken identities, will be presented at 8:15 p.m. July 26-30 by Ice House Theatre. Tickets are available at the door for $3.50 and $2.50, or can be reserved by phoning (314) 221-6070. The theatre is located at the corner of Hill and Front Streets in Hannibal.

A HANDICRAFT EXHIBIT featuring work by artists and craftsmen of the Bethel German Communal Colony is on display in Pickler Memorial Library in the central display cases. The exhibit, which includes hand-woven items, antique furniture and dishes, and pottery, will be on display until Friday. The public is invited to view the exhibit.

SUMMER INITIATION for Phi Delta Kappa education honorary will begin with dinner at 6 p.m. Friday, Aug. 4, in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Members may make reservations by picking up a form in the Education or Social Science Offices. Forms should be returned to Jerry Stremel, first vice president, at 217 Laughlin Building, by Tuesday, Aug. 1.

SIX FLAGS FUN SEEKERS CLUB CARDS are available at the Public Relations Office in McKinney Center. Any member of the University community may obtain a card to use on a St. Louis vacation. Special rates to Six Flags Over Mid-America in addition to lodging savings at motels and campgrounds are offered.

FACULTY NOTES... The University Public Relations Office recently received nine awards from the 1978 regional competition of the University and College Designers Association held July 14 in Louisville, Ky. Judy Moldenhauer, design supervisor, won five awards. She received two gold certificates, the highest award, for a faculty art poster and the Northeast logo. Sharing the gold for the poster is Mary Regan, University photographer. She also won a silver award for her black-and-white photo called "Tricycles." Bill Wehrman, staff assistant in publications, won three awards in the competition. He received a gold award for the Public Relations/Publications Handbook describing the functions of the Public Relations Office. ... Maj. Donald A. Hedgpath and Capt. Edward A. Bardill, Military Science, received Army Commendation Medals for exceptional meritorious service at NMSU. Hedgpath has earned the award four times and Bardill has been awarded it twice... Marlow Ediger, Education, had his manuscript "Geography in the Social Studies" accepted for publication in the Kansas Geographer.

ALL FACULTY, STAFF AND STUDENTS are encouraged to share any news they have of campuswide interest through "Northeast Today." To insure accuracy, we ask the news to be written out and sent to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center. The absolute deadline for news is 9 a.m. the regular working day before the Monday and Wednesday publication dates. To guarantee publication on the right date, items should be sent a few days earlier, if possible.
