GEORGE W. LEHR
MISSOURI STATE AUDITOR

George W. Lehr, Missouri State Auditor, entered public life in April, 1963, when he was appointed auditor of Jackson County. He served three years as auditor and in November, 1966 was elected to the office of collector of revenue. At the age of 29, he was the youngest man ever to win a major county office in Jackson County. He served as collector then was elected presiding judge of Jackson County. He served two years as presiding judge and then, when the county charter took effect in 1973, became the first county executive under the new form of government. He is the first certified public accountant to occupy the office of state auditor.

A Kirksville native, he earned a B.S. degree in accounting at the University of Iowa at Iowa City. After graduation and prior to entering public life, he took a job with the Arthur Young and Company accounting firm in Kansas City.

He has served as a member of numerous civic and governmental organizations, including the Young Leadership Council of the Democratic National Committee and the National Assn. of Counties of which he was vice-chairman. He is an honorary director of Rockhurst College in Kansas City and a member of the President's Advisory Council of St. Mary's College in Leavenworth, Ks. He has received the Kansas City Jaycees' Distinguished Service Award, the Leon Jordan Memorial Award and the City of Hope Golden Torch Award.

He and his wife, the former Barbara Higgins of Kirksville, have three children, Lisa, George and Teresa.

“OLD MISSOU”

“Old Missou” and “Old Missouri”

Our hearts the school has won,

Fondly cling we to the mem’ry

Of “old Missouri’s Son.”

Gladly thee our hearts we tender

By the dim and flick’ring light,

Every lad a proud defender

Of the Purple and the White.
