BULLETIN BOARD

A COMMUTER BOARD for people interested in forming car pools has been established on the first floor of the Administration/Humanities Building across from Room 102. Approximately 80 people have registered for the summer and 50 for the fall semester. For more information, contact Keith Syberg in the Dean of Students Office, A/H 204, 785-4111.

STUDENTS HELPING STUDENTS volunteer leaders are needed to assist with the Summer Orientation Program weekdays through July 9. Applications and information are available in the Freshman Counseling Office, 102 Administration/Humanities Building.

CONCERNED CITIZENS, librarians and library trustees in the northeast Missouri area will have the opportunity to make recommendations for library improvement to the Library Planning Committee at a meeting at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Conference Room of the Student Union Building. The meeting is hosted by the Northeast Missouri Library Network.

DISCUSSION AND SHARING TIMES sponsored by Wesley House will be held at 8 p.m. each Monday throughout the summer sessions. "Some Issues for the '80s" is tonight's topic. "You Must Be Born Again" is scheduled for June 22. Wesley House is the campus ministry of the Episcopal, United Methodist and Presbyterian churches and is located at 903 S. Davis St., one block east of Missouri Hall. Everyone is welcome to participate.

"NORTHEAST TODAY" is published weekly on Mondays throughout the summer. Deadline for submissions is 5 p.m. the Wednesday before publication. Items should include the name and phone number of the student, faculty or staff member making the announcement and should be brought to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center.

HAPPENINGS

A FREE BARBECUE PICNIC will be held from 6-9 p.m. Thursday in Red Barn Park. The picnic, sponsored by Alpha and Omega campus ministry, is open to all students, faculty and staff.

"COAL MINER'S DAUGHTER" is the Student Activities Board movie to be shown at 7 p.m. Thursday in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission is $1.

NORTHEAST NOTES

Dmitry Feofanov, M.A. 1981, discovered an inaccuracy on the advanced music test offered by the Graduate Records Examinations Board. After taking the test in December, Feofanov wrote to the Educational Testing Service; which designs and administers the tests. The ETS investigated his claim, found it valid and informed Feofanov that the item in question would be revised or replaced before the test was given again. The incident was reported in the June 8 issue of the Chronicle of Higher Education. Feofanov is now living in Baltimore, Md.
