INSPECTION OF STATE SURPLUS PROPERTY will be from 9 a.m. through 4 p.m. today and Friday at the Old Air Force Base, seven miles north of Kirksville on Highway 63 North. Desks, bookcases, chairs, filing cabinets, and many other items including a kitchen sink may be seen. For further information, including bidding specifications, interested persons should contact Max Mulford, Physical Plant Division, ext. 7181.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK:

Dr. Cal Huenemann has called my attention to an annual lecture series hosted by the Presbyterian Church in Kirksville. I quote from Dr. Huenemann's letter to me:

"In 1945, Dr. John A. Bell, D.O., left a fund for Presbyterian missionary work in Adair County. For years the income was used to support a minister serving small rural churches. This year the funds are supporting the first of what is expected to be an annual lecture series aimed at the two college communities--faculty, staff, and students."

Dr. Theodore A. Gill, Provost and Dean of the Faculty of John Jay College of Criminal Justice (CUNY) and graduate of the Princeton Theological Seminary, will present the first lecture on the evenings of January 29, 30, and 31, at 7:30 at the Presbyterian Church. I hope you will make every effort to attend.

Charles J. McClain

CHEESE AND BULLDOG KEYCHAINS will be sold today in Violette Hall by Phi Beta Lambda business organization.

THE TRAVEL OFFICE at 140 Kirk Building will make travel arrangements for all University students, faculty and staff and their families. Special rates are available in Chicago. For further information, contact G.H. Jamison, head of the Travel Office, at 2795 or 665-9166.

THE FREE ENTERPRISE INSTITUTE is urging everyone to stop by the display cases in Violette Hall this week to see what Peanuts has to say about free enterprise.

POLITICAL SCIENCE MAJORS who have not taken the survey conducted by the Political Science Club at the end of last semester are asked to contact Brian Callihan at ext. 2325 or Pat Elliott at ext. 3619.

TWO LECTURES will be presented on campus next week by internationally known speaker Dr. Theodore Gill, who is Provost and Dean of the Faculty of the John Jay College of Criminal Justice of City University of New York. On Monday, Jan. 30, Gill will address the Basic Approaches to the Arts class at 2:30 p.m. in 251 Baldwin Hall. On Tuesday, Jan. 31, he will speak to the Criminology class at 2:30 p.m. in 172 Violette Hall. All interested persons are invited to attend these programs.

ALL FACULTY, STAFF AND STUDENTS are encouraged to share any news they have for the campus through "Northeast Today." To insure accuracy, we ask the news to be written out and sent to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center. The absolute deadline for news is 9 a.m. the regular working day before the Monday and Thursday publication dates. To guarantee publication on the right date, items should be sent a few days earlier if possible.

THE LYCEUM SERIES continues through the spring semester with the Lar Lubovitch Dance Company at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 31, in Baldwin Auditorium. Free tickets are available to students, faculty and staff from 9:30 a.m. through 2:30 p.m. today and Friday in the Student Union Building. The company of 10 dancers and artistic director Lar Lubovitch is known for a dance style that includes elements of classical, modern, jazz and pop forms. The next Lyceum program will be West Side Story performed by the Young Americans on March 9.

W-2 FORMS will be available soon to students, faculty and staff. After Friday, Jan. 27, currently enrolled students living in the residence halls should pick up their forms at the residence hall post office. Currently enrolled students living off-campus can pick up their forms at the cashier windows in the Business Office, 105 Administration/Humanities Building. International students should pick up their forms at the Foreign Student Advisor's Office, 105 Kirk Memorial. Full-time faculty and staff employees including graduate assistants will receive their W-2 Forms with their January paychecks.

A SPECIAL MEETING OF THE AG CLUB will be held at 7 tonight in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building.
