THE BOARD OF REGENTS will hold its regular monthly meeting tomorrow at 1 p.m. in the Conference Room of the Student Union. Everyone is welcome.

FINAL GRADES FOR SUMMER GRADUATES must be in the Registrar's Office, 118 Baldwin Hall, by 4 p.m., August 10.

JUST A REMINDER ... Phi Delta Kappa members must return their reservation forms for the July 21 dinner to Jack Dvorak, 208 Nason Hall, by 10 a.m. tomorrow.

AN ICE CREAM SOCIAL AND BAND CONCERT are scheduled for tomorrow night beginning at 7:30 p.m. on the quadrangle in front of the Kirk Memorial.

WORKSHOPS THIS WEEK include: "Adult Basic Education Workshop," July 19-21, Gordon Richardson, director; "Computers in Number Theory," July 19-23, Mary Jane Kohlenberg and Dale Woods, directors; "Graphic Arts in the Secondary Schools," July 19-23, Tom Lundberg, director; and "What the Citizen Needs to Know About the Metric System," July 19-23 or July 19-30, John Erhart, director.

A WORKSHOP ON PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE is scheduled for August 12-13 on the University campus under the direction of Chandler Monroe of the Language and Literature Division. Club officers, committee chairmen, executive board members, members of fraternal and civic organizations, unions, and various community clubs are especially invited to attend. Three persons registered with the National Association of Parliamentarians will provide the instruction.

For further information contact Monroe at ext. 2155.

A STUDENT VOLUNTEER CENTER will open at the beginning of the fall semester in what is now the cloakroom of the Student Union. Carol Baum, a junior psychology major, is laying the groundwork for the center this month as part of her internship in the Director of Student Activities' office. Carol was on television last week publicizing the program which will match willing students with persons or organizations in the community who need help such as the Humane Society, Red Cross, welfare office, etc. Carol is currently looking for someone to assume the directorship of the program in the fall on a full-time basis. Anyone who would like to apply for the job or would like to recommend someone may call her at ext. 7203.

AT THE ICE HOUSE THIS WEEK ... "Ten Little Indians," a mystery comedy, plays from tomorrow through next Tuesday. The "ten little Indians" refers to the cluster of statuettes on the mantelpiece of a weird country house on an island off the coast of Devon and to the nursery rhyme embossed above them, telling how each little Indian met his death until there was none. To this queer Byzantine mortuary eight assorted guests are invited for a weekend by a mysterious host. The guests have never met one another before, nor have they met their host. Nor has the housekeeper, the butler or the boatman ever met their employer.

While the guests are assembled for cocktails prior to going in to dinner, a voice comes out of the air, accusing everyone present, including the two house servants, each in his turn, of murder--not the sort of murder on which a conviction can be got in the courts but a murder just the same. And while they are exchanging data on themselves and on their host (who has sent word he will not be down until the next day) one of the ten little Indian statuettes topples off the mantelpiece and breaks--and immediately thereafter the giddy Oxonian chokes to death of cyanide of potassium which some one has dropped into his drink. One down and nine to go.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. Tickets are $3.50 and $2.50. The box office number is 221-6070.

FACULTY NOTES ... Werner J. Sublette, Social Science, will be awarded the Published Research Award from the Western Agricultural Economics Association at an awards luncheon this week in Fort Collins, Colo. The award is based on his monograph Outdoor Recreation in the Salt-Verde Basin of Central Arizona: Demand and Value.
