

Northeast Today

Thursday, November 10, 1977

"HAPPENINGS"

TODAY, November 10

- Bloodmobile Pre-registration --9 am-3:30 pm,
SUB
Bike Storage --9-10:30 am,
and 3:30-5:30 pm,
GH
Enrollment Wrksh. --3:30 pm, Tang. Rm.,
SUB
Paulding Program --1 pm, Edina
Phi Beta Lambda --6 pm, 140 VH
Macrame Program --7:30 pm, 17 Cascade,
E. Vill. Tr. Crt.
Games Night --8 pm-12:30 am,
Cafe., MH

FRIDAY, November 11

- Senate Election --9 am-4 pm,
SUB
Girl Scout Cookies
go on sale

SATURDAY, November 12

- Football Game --2 pm, Maryville
Dance --9 pm-12 midnight,
Kirk Gym

SUNDAY, November 13

- Scrimmage --1 pm, Arena,
PB
AAUP Speaker --6:30 pm, Al. Rm.,
SUB

CRIME AWARENESS, the new program being advertised by Safety and Security, is focusing on stolen property. The best way to eliminate money, jewelry, meal tickets, purses, wallets, or any article from being stolen is for students to lock their rooms. Students are reminded they should lock their rooms even if they are leaving for only a short while. To prevent theft, car doors should be locked and bicycles properly chained.

PRE-REGISTRATION FOR THE BLOODMOBILE continues today and tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the Student Union Building. Persons are encouraged to pre-register because it speeds up the processing time during the Bloodmobile visit. The Bloodmobile will be in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building Nov. 15-17. The Blue Key and Cardinal Key clubs are sponsoring this visit.

BICYCLE STORAGE for the winter is available in Grim Hall. Students who have not yet done so may store their bicycles from 9-10:30 a.m. and 3:30-5:30 p.m. today. Grim Hall Council is sponsoring the storage, which costs 50 cents.

HOW TO ENROLL WITHOUT A HASSLE will be the subject of a mini-workshop at 3:30 p.m. today in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building. Tips on organizing for an easier spring pre-enrollment will be given. The event is being sponsored by the Freshman Counseling Office and the Missouri Hall Staff. All students are invited to attend at no charge.

DR. JAMES E. PAULDING, associate professor of humanities and allied arts, has been awarded a $2525 grant to study the ramifications of recent land sales in Northeast Missouri to out-of-state groups such as the Mennonites and foreign investors. A program concerning the grant will be at 1 p.m. today at the Knox County High School, Edina. The program will be entitled "Rural Northeast Missouri: Our New Residents." The grant is from the Missouri Committee for the Humanities, Inc., the state-based arm of the National Endowment for the Humanities. The public is invited to attend the program. No admission will be charged.

PHI BETA LAMBDA, a national business organization, will meet at 6 tonight in 140 Violette Hall. A report on the regional conference in Indianapolis will be given. Members are reminded to bring one new member to the meeting. Students interested in joining the organization should call Neil Blackwell, president, at 665-6745.

MACRAME will be discussed and demonstrated at 7:30 tonight at the home of Susan Jackson, 17 Cascade, Eastern Village Trailer Court. Any member of University Dames or potential member is invited to attend. Persons not interested in macrame are invited to bring other handicrafts and work on those during the evening. For further information, call Susan Jackson, ext. 3350 or 665-6716.

GAMES NIGHT will be held from 8 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. tonight in Missouri Hall Cafeteria. Games will include Risk, Monopoly, cards, etc. The public is invited to attend at no charge. Missouri Hall Council is sponsoring the event.

A SPECIAL ELECTION for Councilwoman #2 will be held from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. tomorrow in the Student Union Building. A proposed change to the Student Senate Constitution will also be voted on.

THE WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL TEAM will travel to St. Louis this weekend to participate in the MAIAW State Tournament.

THE MEN'S WRESTLING TEAM will travel to Lincoln, Neb., to participate in the Great Plains Open Friday and Saturday.

GIRL SCOUT COOKIES will be on sale starting tomorrow by members of Campus Gold, the Girl Scout affiliate on campus. Orders will be taken until Nov. 21 and cookies will be delivered Jan. 12 and 13. The cost is $1.25 per box payable when cookies are delivered. For further information or to place an order, call Donna Tanzey, president of Campus Gold, at ext. 7710.

THE BULLDOGS will play Northwest Missouri State University Saturday at Maryville. Game time is 2 p.m.

DAHCOTAH will be the band for a dance sponsored by the Student Activities Board from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight Saturday in Kirk Gym. Refreshments will be served. Admission is free to all students.

THE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM will hold a "Superstar Scrimmage" at 1 p.m. Sunday in Pershing Arena. All students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend at no charge.

THE COORDINATING BOARD FOR HIGHER EDUCATION will be the subject of a speech Sunday by Cecil Hammonds, president of the Missouri Assembly of Faculty in Higher Education. Supper will be served at a cost of $3 per person prior to his speech. The supper will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. The public is invited to attend. The NMSU chapter of American Association of University Professors is sponsoring the event.

THE BOARD OF REGENTS will have its regular meeting at 1 p.m. Monday in the Conference Room of the Student Union Building.

STUDENTS INTERESTED IN $100 per month assistance while enrolled and a position as an Army officer upon completion may qualify while doing graduate work in any discipline. Details may be obtained from Col. Murray Williams, head of the Military Science Division, at ext. 7191.

EDUCATION WEEK is the subject of the display at the library now through Sunday. The display was arranged by Student National Education Association and Student MSTA.

REPRESENTATIVES from McDonnell Douglas Corporation will be on campus Tuesday Nov. 15, to interview mathematics or business majors for prospective jobs in business applications systems programming. The Missouri Board of Probation and Parole will interview social science majors for the position of probation and parole officer on Wednesday, Nov. 16. Panora-Linden Elementary School, Linden, Iowa, will interview students receiving B.S.E. degrees in December on Monday, Nov. 28. For more information or to sign up, contact the Placements Office, First Floor of Blanton Hall.

UNIVERSITY DAMES are looking for volunteers to help with the Blood-mobile visit from 12 noon to 5:45 p.m. Nov. 15; from 1 to 6:45 p.m. Nov. 16; and from 11 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. Nov. 17. Interested persons should contact Judy Wunder, first vice president, at ext. 3456 or 665-9930.

GRADUATE STUDENTS with any problems or situations they wish considered by the Student Senate should contact their representatives Debbie Shrout at 665-9986 or ext. 3317 or Mariam Coleman at 665-8471.

VACATION SCHEDULE for Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day has been announced by the Dean of Administration Office. For the Thanksgiving holiday, employees will be off Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 24, and Friday, Nov. 25. Christmas break will be Friday,

continued next column

Dec. 23, and Monday, Dec. 26. New Year's Day vacation will include Friday, Dec. 30, and Monday, Jan. 2. All University offices will be closed on these dates.

FACULTY NOTES...Keith Peck and Ken Stillwell, mathematics, conducted a Title I Workshop for the mathematics teachers at the Macon Public Schools recently...Thelma Rolston, veterans' coordinator, represented NMSU at the Tri-Regional Conference on Veterans Programs and Education held in Memphis, Tenn., recently...Ronald A. Knight, mathematics, had a paper published in the Proceedings of the American Mathematical Society. The research for the paper entitled "A Characterization of Certain Compact Flows" was partially supported by an NMSU faculty research grant...Dora Bell Clark, business, recently attended an educator's workshop in San Francisco...Jim Thomas, language and literature, has been notified that two of his poems "Old Springs" and "Sunday Afternoon" have been accepted for publication in The Caperock Journal...Marlow Ediger, education, has had manuscripts accepted for publication recently in School and Community, Docket, and English in Texas...Jim Barnes, language and literature, will serve as consultant in poetry at Central Missouri State University this weekend. Later this month, he will give a poetry reading of his works in Kansas City...Denman Evans, science, reminds students, faculty and staff that the Solar Energy Club will have an organizational meeting at 7 p.m. Monday in 12 Science Hall. The club is open to all interested persons.

ALL FACULTY, STAFF, AND STUDENTS are encouraged to share any news they have for the campus through "Northeast Today." To insure accuracy, we ask the news to be written out and sent to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center. The absolute deadline for news is 10:30 a.m. the regular working day before the Monday and Thursday publication dates. To guarantee publication on the right date, items should be sent a few days earlier if possible.