THE WEIGHT ROOM in Pershing Building will be open from 2 to 7 p.m. Monday through Friday throughout the second summer session.

A HANDICRAFT EXHIBIT featuring work by artists and craftsmen of the Bethel German Communal Colony is on display in Pickler Memorial Library in the central display cases. The exhibit, which includes hand-woven items, antique furniture and dishes, and pottery, will be on display until Friday, July 28. The public is invited to view the exhibit.

THE UNIVERSITY SUMMER BAND will be rehearsing at 7 p.m. Wednesdays during the second summer session. The band will perform at an Ice Cream Social at 7 p.m. Thursday, July 27, in the Quadrangle, and will also perform during the Summer Commencement program at 7:30 p.m., Friday, August 11. Any student or faculty member interested in participating as a band member may contact Tim Baldwin, band director, at ext. 7196.

"KING KONG" will be shown at 7 p.m. Thursday in the Ryle Hall Cafeteria. The movie is part of the Arts in the Park series sponsored by Student Activities. Admittance is 50 cents per person.

THE HIGH SCHOOL JAZZ CAMP of the 1000 Hills Summer Youth Program will present a concert at 1 p.m. Friday in Baldwin Auditorium. Guest clinicians Arnie Lawrence, a solo sax player, and Bob Bowman, a bass player, will be featured. Lawrence has his own group called "The Children of All Ages." Bowman is a member of the Thad Jones/Mel Lewis Band in New York City. The University community is invited to attend. No admission will be charged.

THE SUMMER BOOK READING GROUP will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday, July 17, in 307 Administration/Humanities Building to discuss "No Longer at Ease," a Nigerian book by Chinua Achebe. For more information contact Shirley Morahan, group leader, at ext. 2149.

A WET T-SHIRT CONTEST will be held from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. Thursday, July 20, in Red Barn Park. Twenty-five T-shirts will be awarded to the 25 persons who come closest to guessing the number of gallons of water used by the average hall resident in an academic year. Entries will be taken and winners will be announced that evening. The entire University community may participate in the contest.

AN EVENING OF GAMES will be sponsored by Student Activities at 6:30 Thursday, July 20, in the SUB, following the ECAC wet T-shirt contest. In the Alumni Room, cards and board games, including chess, checkers, Monopoly and Sorry, will be available. The Games Room downstairs will offer pool, bowling and pingpong for 30 cents per game. The University community is invited to attend.

STUDENT IDs for those students who have had their pictures taken by Safety and Security are now ready. Safety and Security, located one block north of Centennial Hall, will begin taking ID pictures again Tuesday, July 18.

THE WRITING LAB at 303 Administration/Humanities Building will be open the second summer session from 8:30-11:30 a.m. and from 12-4 p.m. Monday through Friday. Students who want help improving any aspect of their writing can stop by and either receive feedback on particular papers or sign up for tutoring sessions. Teachers may also refer students to the lab by calling ext. 2073.

SEVERAL ASSISTANT HALL DIRECTOR POSITIONS will be open for qualified graduate students for the 1978-79 academic year. Candidates should submit a letter of application to the Housing Office, 101 Administration/Humanities Building.

THE CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER will be open for the second summer session from 7:15 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday through Friday. The center at Elson and Normal Streets provides children with a mid-morning snack and a noon lunch. Fees are $15 per week. To enroll a child, parents need not be affiliated with the University. For further information contact Mrs. Judy Duden, summer director, at ext. 7108.
