

Northeast Today

MONDAY, July 28
1980

HAPPENINGS

TODAY, July 28

6:30 pm Historical Society Dinner,
Georgian Rm., SUB

TUESDAY, July 29

8:15 pm "Angel Street" Opens at
Ice House Theater

WEDNESDAY, July 30

Last Day to Drop Courses Without a Code

THURSDAY, July 31

6 pm "An Evening of Mime," SUB
Mall

FRIDAY, Aug. 1

Last Day For Summer Graduates to File
Placement Papers

SUNDAY, Aug. 4

9:45 am "Contempo," WGEM-TV

WORKSHOPS

July 28- Baroque Style in Art and
Aug. 1 Life

Photograph, Painting,
Sculpture

Directing School Publications

GRADUATION ANNOUNCEMENTS for Summer Commencement are now available at the Dean of Instruction Office. A receipt for graduation fees must be presented when picking up announcements.

1981 PARKING STICKERS for faculty and staff can be picked up after Aug. 1. Registrants must provide the license number of each vehicle registered.

THE ADAIR COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY will honor Paul O. Selby, dean emeritus, with a dinner at 6:30 tonight in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. The dinner is open to all, and reservations can be made by calling Mrs. George Laughlin, 665-2166.

"ANGEL STREET" opens at the Ice House Theater in Hannibal Tuesday. NMSU students participate in the show, which runs through Aug. 3.

"AN EVENING OF MIME" will be presented 6-8 p.m. Thursday on the Student Union Mall. A representative from Mimewock, a professional mime group from Kansas City, will perform.

ART THERAPY will be discussed by Mary Belle Martin, professor of art, on WGEM-TV's "Contempo" program at 9:45 a.m. Sunday. The audio portion of the interview will be aired at 8:15 a.m. Sunday on WGEM radio.

SUMMER COMMENCEMENT REHEARSAL IS AT 11:30 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 7, in Baldwin Auditorium. The graduation ceremony is at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 15 in Stokes Stadium.

NEW FRESHMEN enrolled in summer school can preregister for Fall 1980 classes Friday morning, Aug. 8, in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Reservations should be made through the Freshman Counseling Office, 102 Administration/Humanities Building, extension 7166.

THE SUMMER ORIENTATION PROGRAM has been labeled successful by the Freshman Counseling Office. Students Helping Students volunteers are still needed to work at transfer registration on Aug. 5 and at registration for late applicants on Aug. 8. Interested students should stop by the Freshman Counseling Office, 102 Administration/Humanities Building, to sign up.

SIGN LANGUAGE, DEAFNESS AND BLINDNESS are the subjects of a display that will be in Pickler Memorial through Sunday. The display was assembled by Nancy Hendrix, instructor in Special Programs.

TEXTURAL CREATIONS, the work of graduate Joel Franken, will be on display from 1-5 p.m. and 7-8 p.m. today through Friday in the University Art Gallery, 218 Baldwin Hall. The exhibition is part of the requirements for the Master of Arts degree.

THE DEADLINE for the next news-feature issue of "Northeast Today" is 4 p.m. Wednesday. This will be the last special issue of the summer. Deadline for regular issues is 5 p.m. Thursday. To insure accuracy, we ask that news be written and brought to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center.

POWER VOLLEYBALL GAMES for anyone interested will be played at 7:30 tonight in Pershing Arena. Power volleyball is part of the Summer Recreational Program. Below is a game schedule for this week's softball and volleyball competitions. For game information and field conditions, contact the Student Activities Office, extension 7203.

SOFTBALL

Today

5:30 p.m. Forgottens vs. Coor Light

6:30 p.m. Cougars vs. Stars

Wednesday

5:30 p.m. BLTAS vs. Coor Light

6:30 p.m. Cougars vs. Forgottens

VOLLEYBALL

Tuesday

6:30 p.m. Warriors vs. Good Time Charlie

7:30 p.m. Pica Pounders vs. Forgottens

Thursday

6:30 p.m. Cougars vs. Good Time Charlie

7:30 p.m. No Names vs. All Stars

NORTHEAST NOTES

Jim Barnes, Language and Literature, has been appointed to a one-year term on the Literature Advisory Committee of the Missouri Arts Council. His poem "The Chicago Odyssey" has been included in "The Pushcart Prize: Best of the Small Presses," an annual anthology of literature selected from national magazines and small press books. He recently had two poems accepted for publication in Long Pond Review, a New York magazine of contemporary literature.

Marlow Ediger, Education, has had his manuscript "Developing the Social Studies Curriculum" accepted for publication in the Education Journal.