RESIDENCE HALL WEEK gets underway today beginning with a special breakfast, "Pancake Supreme," served in the halls from 6:30-9 a.m. An "awareness blitz" will continue throughout the day. Don't be surprised if you see administrators eating in the residence halls and attending classes, or students attending administrative meetings. The blitz was designed to familiarize administrators and students with the varying responsibilities and activities each is faced with throughout the day.

The hall displays will be judged from 4-5 p.m. A bonfire is scheduled for 7-9 p.m. in the Red Barn Park. The Blue Grass Band will entertain.

There will be an appreciation tea tomorrow from 2-4 p.m. in the Alumni Room of the SUB. Hall directors, assistant directors, maids, custodians, residence assistants, and American Food Management personnel will be honored. Tomorrow night the individual halls will present programs of their choice.

The remaining Residence Hall Week schedule will be printed in Wednesday's Northeast Today.

"ROOTS," the film taken from Alex Haley's book, will be shown on campus in two-hour segments beginning today at 3 p.m. in 106 Laughlin Building. Other showings will be on March 16, 18, 21, 23, and 25.

A DISCUSSION OF LIFE AFTER LIFE, the best-selling book by Raymond A. Moody Jr., will be led by Harold Eastman, professor of sociology, at 7 p.m., Wednesday in the Conference Room of the SUB. A condensed version of the book is in the January, 1977 issue of Reader's Digest. Anyone interested in talking about "near-death" experiences is invited to attend. The discussion is being sponsored by the Pershing Society.

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN will meet at 6:30 tonight at the University of Missouri Extension Center, Northtown Road. A business meeting will follow a luau. For more information contact Mary Jane Kohlenberg ext. 2758.

THE NEMO SINGERS will begin their annual spring tour Wednesday with performances at Moberly and Fulton high schools, the Capitol Rotunda in Jefferson City, and the Winston Churchill Memorial Chapel in Fulton. They also will appear in Odessa, Blue Springs, and Raytown high schools, Central Missouri State University, the Village Presbyterian Church in Prairie Village, Ks., and at the North Central-Southwest Division Convention of the Music Educators National Conference in Kansas City.

FRIDAY IS THE DEADLINE for filing your master's degree application if you plan to graduate this spring.

"SHAMROCKS AGAINST MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY," a fund donation, will be held in the SUB concourse today through Friday from 10:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m. Donations will go toward the Muscular Dystrophy Foundation. The project is being sponsored by Cardinal Key.

CAMPUS GOLD will hold an election of officers at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow in Room 4 of the SUB. A discussion of ambassadors for senior Girl Scouts also is included on the agenda.

STUDENT LOANS OR WORK-STUDY FOR SUMMER SCHOOL ... Students who wish to apply for student loans or work-study for summer school should pick up necessary application forms now from Financial Aids, Kirk Building. April 15 is the deadline for submitting applications in order to have aid ready by summer registration day.

SECOND COMING SEMINAR ... The United Campus Ministry will present its second seminar of the semester, "The Second Coming: A Look at the Scriptures," from 7-8:30 p.m. Thursday. The seminar, which is the second of the Christian-World Series, will feature Dr. George Nickelsburg of the School of Religion, University of Iowa, Iowa City.

APPLICATIONS FOR THE NAN E. WADE SCHOLARSHIP are available in the SUB concourse today through Friday from 10:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m. Applicants must have a G.P.A. of at least 2.7, be a full-time student, and demonstrate high qualities of leadership, character, and participation in campus activities. Financial need is an important determinant in choosing the recipient. The scholarship ($50 a semester) is being given by Cardinal Key.

GRADUATE ASSISTANT APPLICATIONS for the Teaching Skills Center are now being accepted. Applicants for the '77-78 academic year must hold a B.S.E. degree by the beginning of the fall semester and have a minimum GPA of 3.0.

Applications and further information are available in 247 Violette Hall.

APPLICATIONS ARE AVAILABLE in the Financial Aids office for the O. Glen Hocker Career Award. The $100 award is given annually to a sophomore, junior, or senior with at least a 2.50 GPA. It is made on the basis of a concentrated demonstration of a life-time interest in a chosen career.

THE FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA, District III, will be on campus Thursday for a conference and competition. Approximately 350 high school students will participate.

Helen Rieger, Libraries and Museums, will have her biography included in Who's Who in the Midwest, 1977.

THE BAHAI CLUB will meet at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in Room 5, SUB. Tom Reed will speak on "I'm glad you asked me about Esperanto." Everyone is welcome.

THE NEXT ISSUE OF NORTHEAST TODAY will be distributed Wednesday. Deadline for news items is 10:30 a.m. tomorrow. Stop in or call the Public Relations office, McKinney Center, ext. 7213. Editors: Maggie Jarrett and Bruce Arnold.
