Northeast Missouri State University

Vol. 4, No. 1

January 11, 1988

The 1988-89 Family Financial Statement is now available in the Financial Aids Office, A/H 100. This application must be completed to determine your eligibility for all federal aid, including a Guaranteed Student Loan. Applications should be mailed to ACT by March 1 if you wish to receive your aid at the beginning of the fall semester.

Kenneth Eble, professor of English at the University of Utah, will meet with faculty members Jan. 18, to share his insight on the "craft of teaching." Eble is the author of several books including The Aims of College Teaching and Improving Teaching Styles. A meeting for faculty new to NMSU and mentors will be held at 1:30 p.m., SUB Alumni Room. A general session for all faculty will be held at 3:30 p.m., SUB Conference Room. Should schedules be such that you would not be able to attend one meeting, faculty are encouraged to attend another. Faculty may also attend both sessions.

Bill Glasco of the Mercer, Miedinger and Hansen actuarial firm of Kansas City will speak on "The Actuarial Profession" at 7 p.m., Jan. 21, Violette Hall 290. The presentation is sponsored by the Division of Math and Computer Science.

The SAB 1988 Dinner Theatre featuring the Franklin Street Singers will be held Jan. 22 and 23, in the SUB Georgian Room. "Little Mary Sunshine," the book, lyrics and music by Rick Besoyan, will be presented; dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. Cost is $9 or $6 with an SAB sticker. Tickets are available at the SAB Office, SUB or at the Edna Campbell Book Store.

Circle K International will sponsor a voter registration and education drive from 9 a.m.-2 p.m., Jan. 28, in the SUB. Emma Sanders, of the County Clerk's office, will be present to register new voters. To register, one must have picture identification and have resided in Adair County for at least 30 days. Campaign literature will be available for the various presidential candidates competing in the "Super Tuesday" presidential primary, March 8. For more information, contact Mark Bandas, the Business Academic Advising Center, 785-4268.

Student Senate has three positions open: two senior representatives and one sophomore representative. Candidates must have a 2.25 GPA and the class status of the group they will represent. Applications are available until Jan. 20, in the Student Senate Office, SUB. Application deadline is 5 p.m., Jan. 20. For more information, stop by or call the Senate Office at 785-4193.

Student organizations may place activities of campus-wide interest included in daily announcements in the SUB. Announcements are read at 9:25 and 11:25 a.m. and 1:25 p.m., Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays; Tuesday and Thursday announcement times are 9:25 and 11:05 a.m. and 1:05 p.m. For more information, contact Rita Hiscocks, SUB Programming Coordinator, at 785-4117.

Open bowling leagues will be held from 7-9 p.m., Mondays, in the SUB Games Room. Leagues will run from Feb. 1 through March 14. Cost is $2.75 per person each week. An informational meeting for all interested will be held at 7 p.m., Jan. 25, SUB Games

Room. Students, faculty and staff may sign up as four-member teams or as individuals to be placed on teams.

Basketball officials are needed to referee evening intramural games. Referees receive institutional wages. Experience is preferred. Basketball teams will be able to sign up for practice games (to be held Jan. 13 and 14). Sign-up is from 12:30-4:30 p.m., beginning Jan. 11, Pershing Building 309. For more information on officiating or signing up a team, call the Intramural-Recreational Sports Office at 785-4343.

Intramural-Recreational Sports deadline for the HOTSHOT Tournament (open and AST) is Jan. 20; deadline for the Free Throw Contest (open and AST) and basketball (AST) is Jan. 27. Sign up at Pershing Building 309.

Students who earned a 3.25 cumulative GPA after fall 1987 semester and had a University scholarship and failed to renew it at any previous time, may be eligible to renew it (with work) for the spring 1988 semester. For more information, call the Dean of Students Office at 785-4111.
