

NORTHEAST

Today

Northeast Missouri State University

Vol. 4, No. 8

February 29, 1988

The Division of Language and Literature is soliciting submissions to a new periodical for undergraduate research at NMSU. Research writing done for any undergraduate course or in connection with any undergraduate research project on campus is eligible for submission. Interested students should send two copies of the manuscript along with name, address and phone number (home and school) to Linda Seidel, Division of Language and Literature. If the paper is recorded on an IBM or Zenith floppy disk, the disk should also be included. Deadline for submission is April 8.

Seasonal positions in the travel and student services departments at the Council on International Education Exchange in New York are available from February through September. Applicants with some office skills, prior work, study or travel experience and/or a second language are preferred. A cover letter and resume should be forwarded to: CIEE Personnel Department, 205 East 42nd Street, New York, N.Y. 10017.

V. Elizabeth Evans, Education and Ernest Thomas and Gordon Wallace, Physical Plant, have been added to the list of retirees that will be honored this evening at the 31st Baldwin Lecture.

Journalism scholarships funded by the Journalism Foundation of Metropolitan St. Louis are open to students who live in the city of St. Louis; the counties of St. Louis, St. Charles, Jefferson and Franklin in Missouri; and the counties of Madison, Monroe and St. Clair in Illinois. Eligible students must be enrolled for the 1988 fall term in journalism, mass communication or writing courses and be completing their sophomore, junior or senior years in college, or attending graduate school. Application deadline is March 15. For more information, contact Patrick Gauen of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, 900 North Tucker Boulevard, St. Louis, Mo., 63101.

Missouri Women in Energy Scholarship applications are now available in the Financial Aids Office, A/H 100. The $500 scholarship is open to juniors or seniors enrolled full-time in a Missouri college or university majoring in business, education, engineering, home economics, journalism, science or other energy related fields. A minimum 3.0 GPA is required. Application deadline is April 15.

Mr. and Ms. University Pageant and "Mis Lead" Pageant entry deadline is March 15. Names and fees should be submitted to the RHA office, Ryle Hall. The pageants are sponsored by the Resident's House Association. For more information, contact the RHA Office at 785-7222 or contact an RHA representative.

The Missouri London Program is a study abroad program that offers students in Missouri a unique opportunity to earn college credits and experience learning and living in London for a semester. The program is directed and staffed by local faculty from various universities in Missouri. The 16-week program costs approximately $4,000. This price includes tuition (for about 12 hours, less for in-state students), room and board and round trip air fare to London. Students who qualify may obtain loans for the program. For more information, contact Seymour Patterson, A/H 111B, 785-4360.

Kirk Gym will now be open for free and reserved play when the outer doors to Kirk Building are unlocked. Hours are as follows: 6:30 a.m.-11:30 p.m., Monday through Friday; 10 a.m.-5:30 p.m., Saturday and noon-7 p.m., Sunday. Student groups may reserve Kirk Gym by calling 785-4133.

Fellowships of amounts up to $27,500, provided by the National Endowment for the Humanities, are available for individuals involved in the advanced study and research of the humanities. Applications for NEH Fellowships will be evaluated on the definition, organization, conception and significance of the proposed project. Application deadline is June 1. For further information or an application, contact: Division of Fellowships and Seminars, Room 316, National Endowment for the Humanities, 1100 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C., 20506.

Lyceum Series presents

HARLEM HEYDAY

a vaudeville revue of the Prohibition Era

March 2, 1988 - 8 p.m.

Baldwin Auditorium

Free tickets are available for NMSU students, faculty and staff at the SAB Office, SUB or at the door.

Lyceum Series Features Musical Theatre Group

AFRI Productions, a black musical theatre company, will perform "Harlem Heyday," at 8 p.m., March 2, in Baldwin Auditorium. The performance, a vaudeville revue of the Prohibition Era, is sponsored by the Lyceum Series.

The New York City based troupe appeared on the NMSU stage last spring, entertaining the audience with their show "Movin' On Up." The group tours coast to coast, and according to AFRI is the only troupe of its kind in America.

As its title reveals, "Harlem Heyday" is set in Harlem, capital city of black America. Through old songs, dances and memories, the show recreates the 1920s—a decade when Americans experienced a new interest in things "truly American." The Charleston, the Cotton Club and Charles Lindbergh were part of the era and are a part of "Harlem Heyday."

AFRI is known for revealing history through songs. The show will include songs written and performed by blacks during the roaring twenties: "Honeysuckle Rose," "I'm Just Wild About Harry," "St. Louis Blues," "Ain't Misbehavin'," "Sweet Georgia Brown" and others. Giants of black entertainment, such as Josephine Baker, Ethel Waters, Bessie Smith and Gertrude "Ma" Rainey are portrayed.

"The voices have plenty to say and do it with dignity and an exceptional amount of musical talent. The 'message' is in the music and you hear it. There's an electricity there," William Raidy of Newhouse Newspapers said.

Free tickets are available for students, faculty and staff at the SAB Office, SUB or at the door.

Women's History Week

29 MONDAY

▷ 7:30 p.m.—"Women in Art History," presented by Susan Shoaff, associate professor of art, SUB Conference Room

1 TUESDAY

▷ 7 p.m.—"Still Searching for Shakespeare's Sister," presented by Helen Warren, assistant professor of communication, SUB 4. The lecture will be a reading from Virginia Woolf's "A Room of One's Own." Woolf speculates how it would have been if Shakespeare had a sister as talented as he.

▷ 8:30 p.m.—"What if Aunt Alice Had Been Japanese?" a comparison of women's status in American and Japanese cultures, presented by Karen Kay, assistant professor of Japanese, SUB 4

2 WEDNESDAY

▷ 7 p.m.—"Jane Adams: Early Influences and Later Effects," presented by Mina Carson, assistant professor of history, SUB Conference Room

3 THURSDAY

▷ 7 p.m.—"Toni Morrison's 'Beloved: Black History in Women's Writings,'" presented by Shirley Morahan, associate professor of English, SUB Conference Room

Faculty Art Exhibition

Jenny Morlan, temporary assistant professor of art, explains "Operation Bellybutton," one of the works in the Faculty Art Exhibition, to a group of students. The exhibition will run through March 18 in the Baldwin Hall Art Gallery.

German Program Offers Sea Side Study

This is the second of a series of articles about study abroad programs available through the University.

As the study of foreign languages increases among American students, NMSU students may gain a competitive edge by receiving first-hand instruction abroad.

The "Internationaler Wissenschaftlicher Ferienkurs" (International scientific vacation course) of the Christian-Albrecht-Universität at Kiel will celebrate its 40th anniversary next summer. Ten NMSU students will be selected to participate in the program, which is subsidized by the Federal Republic of Germany to promote German culture around the world.

Students may earn up to six hours of credit during the summer program by taking 16 hours of German language weekly and participating in lectures and discussions about German history, economy, politics, and culture four afternoons per week.

The program also includes regional excursions to Hamburg, Lubeck, Schleswig, the North Sea and East Holstein.

Kiel is a city of 270,000 located on the Baltic Sea, 60 miles north of Hamburg and 50 miles south of the Danish border. The Christian-Albrecht-University enrolls about 17,000 students, including more than 800 foreign students.

The Kiel German Study Program will run from July 11 through Aug. 5. Following the stay at Kiel, students will travel to Berlin until Aug. 12, when the group will return to St. Louis.

David Parteneimer, assistant professor of English, and Maren Parteneimer, assistant professor of German, are coordinating the program and will accompany the students while in Germany.

The program costs 1,345 German marks, or about $800. This includes tuition, room and board, most likely health insurance, local excursions and the trip to Berlin. Air fare, independent excursions and spending money are not included in the price.

Flights will be arranged from St. Louis to Hamburg for July 9; however, students may arrange their own flights if they wish.

To apply for the program, students must have completed one year of German instruction at NMSU. Applicants should submit application and sign up for an interview by 3 p.m. Feb. 29 at Baldwin Hall 288C. For more information, contact David or Maren Parteneimer, Baldwin Hall 288C, 785-4274 or 785-4518.

Kiel, Germany—site of a summer study program available to NMSU students. Located on the Baltic Sea, Kiel is a 750-year-old shipping center with ferry-lines to Norway, Sweden and Denmark. The port city combines industry with leisure through a variety of water sports such as sailing and skiing and was host of the 1936 and 1972 Olympics.

This Week

29 MONDAY

- Upward Bound summer position application deadline, application materials should be submitted to the Upward Bound Office, Kirk Building 220.
- 1:30-5 p.m.—Division of Nursing senior test, Barnett Hall 250
- 4 p.m.—"Strategies for Assessing Learning," presented by Dr. Joe Novak, professor of education and biological science at Cornell University, SUB Activities Room. The lecture is part of the Science Seminar Series and is free and open to the public.
- 6 p.m.—31st Baldwin Lecture, SUB Georgian Room. George McKenna, principal of George Washington Preparatory High School will be the guest speaker.
- 7 p.m.—"What I Will Do as President," a video about presidential candidate Pat Robertson, Science Hall 274. The video, sponsored by Students for Robertson, will explain the Robertson platform.
- 7:30 p.m.—Peer advisor and resident advisor information meeting, SUB Tangerine Room. Applications will be available for students interested in positions for the 1988-89 academic year.
- 8 p.m.—Flute choir, trumpet ensemble and horn choir, Baldwin Auditorium

1 TUESDAY

- State Farm Insurance Co. employment interviews, Career Planning and Placement Center, McKinney Center. Positions in claims, underwriting, accounting, data processing and service are available. For more information, contact CPPC.
- 9 a.m.—"Concept Mapping and Vee Diagrams," will be presented by Dr. Joe Novak of Cornell University, SUB Activities Room. The seminar is sponsored by the Science Seminar Series.

- 4-5 p.m.—"Research Papers- Methods of Notetaking: Avoiding Plagiarism," Writing Center workshop, A/H 303; also March 2, 3:30-4:30 p.m. and March 3, 7-8 p.m.
- 6:30 p.m.—"You and Your First Job, Make the Partnership a Success," presented by Mike Thompson, SUB Alumni Room. Thompson owns ZIA Corp., The Business Center and Mike's Bookstore; his lecture is sponsored by Phi Beta Lambda business fraternity.
- 7 p.m.—"How Does an Adult Child of an Alcoholic Learn Positive Living Skills?" will be discussed by Anna Shouse, assistant professor of communication, and campus counselor Louann Uray, SUB Conference Room.
- 7:30 p.m.—"Interviewing Successfully," presented by Mark Bandas, coordinator of AACSB Assessment Program, Barnett Hall 137. The program is sponsored by the Society of Manufacturing Engineers and is open to anyone interested.

2 WEDNESDAY

- 1:30-4:30 p.m.—Intramural recreational sports wrestling deadline (open and AST), Pershing Building 309. For more information, contact the Intramural Office at 785-4467.
- 4:30 p.m.—Issues in Teaching Symposium, "How should a teacher deal with a truly excellent student?" A/H 213
- 8 p.m.—"Harlem Heyday," AFRI Productions, presented by the Lyceum Series, Baldwin Auditorium

3 THURSDAY

- American National Insurance Co. employment interviews, Career Planning and Placement Center, McKinney Center. Background in marketing and finance is helpful, but not required. For more information, contact CPPC.
- 1:30-5 p.m.—Division of Nursing senior test, Barnett Hall 250
- 4 p.m.—Intramural recreational sports manager's meeting, Pershing Building 325A. Managers for wrestling (open and AST), co-rec basketball (open), pool tournament (open) and swim meet (AST) should attend.
- 8 p.m.—Graduate conducting recital, Jeff Fuchs, Baldwin Auditorium

4 FRIDAY

- Mid-term
- Last day of first-half block courses
- 6 p.m.—Residence halls close

13 SUNDAY

- 10 a.m.—Residence halls reopen

14 MONDAY

- 7:30 a.m.—Classes resume

Due to mid-term break, the next issue of the Northeast Today will be published March 14. Deadline for this issue is 5 p.m., March 2. Entries should be submitted on the Northeast Today forms available in the Public Relations Office A/H 202.