

Northeast Today

January 26, 1976

IMPROVED FACULTY INSTRUCTION THROUGH SELF-ANALYSIS is the aim of a new program to begin later this semester with the guidance of the Teaching Skills Center. The Center is purchasing a new videotape camera that will be available to faculty who are interested in seeing themselves as their students see them. The instructor can start and stop the camera his/herself and later view the tape in private. The Center will provide guidelines for evaluation. For more information contact Andy Skinta, coordinator of the Center at ext. 7224.

THE TOWN AND GOWN will meet for the second year through a community service/education project in progress this tax season. Approximately 35 University accounting majors are again participating in the VITA project (Volunteer Income Tax Assistance) in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service, Northeast Missouri Opportunities Inc., and the Northeast Missouri Area Agency on Aging. The students offer their assistance in filling out tax returns federal and state -- free of charge -- to senior citizens and low income persons. Throughout the next two months they will make 22 visits to area senior citizen and community centers. For more information contact Dwayne Shoemaker in the Business Division, ext. 3379.

THE TOP ADMINISTRATOR at the Pibulsongkram Teacher Training College in Bangkok, Thailand was on campus last week to discuss the operations of the University with Drs. Charles McClain and Dean Rosebery. Dr. Boonyuen Chiraphongse, the newly-appointed dean of the college, received an M.A. in science education from Northeast in 1969. He will return to his native country as dean in March.

A FACULTY RECITAL, featuring Dale Everett and Kathleen Dawson of Fine Arts, is scheduled for 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Activities Room of the Student Union. The program will include pieces by Handel, Bach, Finzi, Friml, Romberg, Herbert and Gershwin. It is free and open to the public.

114 LAUGHLIN BUILDING has recently been equipped for telelectures. Ray Klinginsmith, Dean of Administration, said that the telephone company will soon install a jack in the Tangerine Room also.

Mary Whitlock, a junior biology major, is a student intern at the Children's Zoo of the St. Louis Zoo. Peggy Khile, a junior speech/theater and interpersonal communication major, is interning at Planned Parenthood of Northeast Missouri. Other student interns this semester are working as medical secretaries at Kirksville Osteopathic Hospital, as legislative aids in Jefferson City, with police departments in various cities and in several other learning environments.

BLUE KEY DIRECTORIES are still available. The directory of faculty and student listings is available for 50¢ in the Campus Book Store or by calling 665-2064.

A FILM NIGHT FOR NURSING HOME PATIENTS -- a new program sponsored by the campus Blue Key organization -- begins tonight at the Adair County Nursing Home. The students plan to borrow the films from the University's Audio-Visual department one night each month for the remainder of the school year and show them free of charge. Tonight's features are "The American Cowboy", a film about ranch life today, and "Adventure Trentsevern Style," a travel film on Canada.

1976 TAX GUIDE FOR COLLEGE TEACHERS ... information on contents and how to order is available from the Public Relations office, ext. 7213.

THE HALL OF FAME ROOM has reopened in a new location, 104 Kirk, and is now available for meetings. Those interested in using the room are asked to contact Marty Meyers, ext. 7203. The Maintenance Department is now located in the Hall of Fame's former room.

FACULTY NOTES ... G. Tomisaki, Language and Literature, has been informed that Slackwater Review will print two of his poems in a future issue....Andrew Grossbardt, Language and Literature, recently had a short story accepted by Lowlands Review from Lake Charles, Louisiana. The story will appear in the spring issue. He also had four poems accepted for the spring issue of Mirror Northwest from Omak, Washington....Max Freeland, Science, recently attended "Operation Interface," a program sponsored by the American Chemical Society. Representatives from St. Louis industries and colleges in Missouri and Illinois discussed the training of chemists for the chemical industry....Marlow Ediger, Education, will have his manuscript "The Pupil as a Listener" published in Reading Improvement....Meredith Eller, Social Science, has been invited to read a paper on St. Augustine and Carthage at the 11th Conference on Medieval Studies May 2-5 at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo....Carole Rowland,

Faculty Notes (continued)

Science, and Dick Heun, Language and Literature, interpreted learning style maps for science and social studies students last week at Chillicothe Junior High School.....Max Cogan, Health, Physical Education and Recreation, presented a paper entitled "Cognitive Mapping: A New Tool in Professional Preparation" at an annual meeting of the National College Physical Education Association for Men (NCPEAM) Jan. 9. The paper will be published later in the year in the Proceedings of the NCPEAM." On Feb. 4, Cogan and Linda and Dick Heun, Language and Literature, Robert Schnucker, Social Science, and Viola Martin, Education, will conduct a seminar on cognitive mapping at a meeting of the Association of Teacher Educators Annual Conference in St. Louis.Jerry Mayhew, Health, Physical Education and Recreation, is co-author of a chapter entitled "Strength Training for the Shot and Discus" appearing in Best of Track and Field from the Coaching Clinic by Parker Publishing.