THE READING GROUP will meet at 7:30 tonight in the Communication Skills Center, 303 Administration/Humanities Building, to discuss Annie Dillard's Pilgrim at Tinker Creek. All interested readers are invited to attend. Other reading selections for this semester include: Thomas Robbins' Even Cowgirls Get the Blues, Tillie Olsen's Tell Me a Riddle, and Gabriel Garcia Marquez's One Hundred Years of Solitude.

THE PRESENTATION made by Dr. Harold C. Lyon Jr. on Jan 17 will be broadcast at 9:07 a.m. Tuesday and Wednesday on KIRX-AM's Area Scene program. The noted psychologist discussed "Discovering Our Potential for Excellence."

LAMBDA ALPHA EPSILON, national law enforcement and corrections fraternity, will meet at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Guest lecturer James McDowell from the Topeka-Santa Fe Railroad will address the group on job opportunities with his company and will share some of his job experiences with the railroad. Everyone is invited to attend.

THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in Room 5 of the Student Union Building. All persons interested in joining this organization are welcome to attend.

REPRESENTATIVES of the Paris R-II School District will be on campus Wednesday to interview teachers for the 1978-79 school year. The following positions will be available: Mathematics grades 7-12, Learning Disabilities grades 9-12, Vocational Agriculture grades 9-12, Industrial Arts grades 7-12, Physical Education grades 7-12, EMR Elementary and High School, and Elementary Kindergarten through grade 6.

ALSO ON WEDNESDAY, representatives of McGladrey, Hansen, Dunn & Company (Certified Public Accountants) of Davenport, Iowa, will interview accounting students graduating in May or August. Interested students should schedule interview appointments at the Placement Office, First Floor, Blanton Hall, where sign-up folders are posted.

"AMERICAN DRAWINGS '76", a display of 45 contemporary works organized by the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition, will open at 12 noon on Wednesday at the University Art Gallery, 218 Baldwin Hall. Gallery hours will be 12 noon to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. The exhibition will be on display through Wednesday, Feb. 22.

ALPHA PHI SIGMA will meet at 6 p.m. Wednesday in 111 Violette Hall. Guest speaker Linnea Ratcliff, associate professor of speech, will discuss body language.

CAMPUS VOLUNTEERS are holding a special, introductory meeting at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building. All persons interested in joining this organization are welcome to attend.

PROBLEMS RELATED TO RESIDENCE HALL LIVING will be discussed at 7 p.m. every Wednesday in the Student Senate Chambers located in the Student Union Building. Any person with a problem is invited to attend.

THE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM will host Southeast Missouri State University at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in Pershing Arena.

PLANS FOR THE NEW MEDIA CENTER will be discussed by Campus Planners David Richey and Teresa Rodriguez at a special meeting of the Mass Communication Club at 7 p.m. Thursday in Room 3 of the Student Union Building. Immediately following the guest speakers, a short business meeting will be held. All persons interested in planning Communication Week are required to attend. Anyone interested in the media center or mass communication is welcome to attend.

INTERVIEWS with Lee's Summit R-7 Schools, McDonnell Douglas Corp., and Social Security and Civil Service agencies will be held on campus Tuesday, Feb. 7, Wednesday, Feb. 8 and Thursday, Feb. 9 respectively. Sign-up folders will be posted in the Placement Office, First Floor, Blanton Hall beginning tomorrow.

BIOGRAPHY FORMS have been distributed to all faculty and staff members by the Public Relations Office. The biographies will serve as background information for news releases and other public relations requests. The forms should be returned to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center, as soon as possible. If a person does not receive a biography form, he or she may call the Public Relations Office at ext. 7213 so one may be sent.

MEMBERS of the Student Nurses Association are invited to submit a t-shirt design at the next meeting scheduled for 7 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 9, in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. A free t-shirt with the imprinted design will be awarded to the winner. For further information please contact Ric Cleeton at 665-5549.

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION MAJORS or students planning to major in elementary education who are interested in gaining experience in working with children in group and non-classroom situations are needed to assist Brownie Troop Leaders at Benton School. Interested students should contact Dr. Veronica Blaschak, assistant professor of elementary education, at ext. 3437 or 7159 or stop by 263 Violette Hall.

A FELLOWSHIP AWARD for $1,886.25 is being offered by Soroptimist International of the Americas for one year of graduate study to women who wish to study in "frontier" fields. The minimum requirement is a bachelor's degree and a good academic record. The deadline is Tuesday. For more information and application materials, contact Dr. Terry B. Smith, dean of students, 204 Administration/Humanities Building.

THE PLACEMENTS OFFICE asks that students, faculty, and staff members observe the red "Reserved for Placement Interviewers" signs in the lot just east of Blanton Hall. Because it was virtually impossible for placement visitors to find parking spaces, four spaces were assigned for them. When the signs are uncovered, only interviewers are to park in the spaces. When the signs are covered, they are available to anyone seeking to park in the lot. The Placements Office requests that these signs be observed especially now during the heavy employment season.

PARKING BETWEEN the Administration/Humanities Building and Baldwin Hall is restricted for use by the handicapped and by construction vehicles. Others are asked not to park in this area which will be patrolled by Safety and Security.

ALL FACULTY, STAFF, AND STUDENTS are encouraged to share any news they have for the campus through "Northeast Today." To insure accuracy, we ask the news to be written out and sent to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center. The absolute deadline for news is 9 a.m. the regular working day before the Monday and Thursday publication dates. To guarantee publication on the right date, items should be sent a few days earlier if possible.
