MEMO TO FRESHMEN FROM FROSH COUNSELING ... If you have declared a major and have not been transferred to an academic advisor in your declared division, you need to contact your freshman counselor immediately.

Beginning next Monday, the freshman counselors will begin making appointments for summer and fall pre-registration. Drop by or call ext. 7166 and make an appointment early.

REGISTRATION PACKETS for the fall semester and summer sessions may be picked up today through Friday from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. in the SUB.

WACKY OLYMPICS and a fast for the Red Cross charities will be the highlights of today's activities for Residence Hall Week. The Wacky Olympics will begin at 5:30 in Red Barn Park. Among the events are a Peanut Push, Menu Mash, Egg Carry Relay, and The Wacky Relay. Pizza will be the featured lunch item today and students are asked to fast tonight's meal for the benefit of the Red Cross. Points for the most outstanding hall will be given during both activities.

Tomorrow from 10:30 a.m.-1 p.m. will be the voting for King and Queen. Voting will take place in Missouri, Centennial, and Ryle Halls. A special St. Pat's Dinner will be served during the evening meal and the Residence Hall Variety Show is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in Baldwin Hall. During the show, the Residence Hall King and Queen will be crowned and the trophy awarded to the outstanding hall of the week.

"AGRICULTURE IN MODERN LIVING," a course open to non-agriculture majors only, will be offered for the first time during the 1977 fall semester. According to Bob Stone, assistant professor of agriculture economics, the course "will give students an idea of how agriculture fits into the total economy." The course number is PA307.

THE SECOND TWO-HOUR SEGMENT OF "ROOTS" will be shown today beginning at 3 p.m. in 106 Laughlin Building. Other showings will be March 18, 21, 23, and 25. The first two-hour segment was shown Monday.

Maj. Gen. Glenn K. Otis, Deputy Commander of the U.S. Army Combined Arms Combat Development Activity, Ft. Leavenworth, Ks., will be the speaker.

MARCH 25 is the application deadline for the O. Glen Hocker Career Award. The $100 award is given annually to a sophomore, junior, or senior with at least a 2.50 G.P.A. It is made on the basis of a concentrated demonstration of a life-time interest in a chosen career. Applications are available in the Financial Aids Office.

INTERVIEWS CAN BE MADE in the Placement's Office for the following companies: Rockwood School District, today; Moorman Mfg. Co. Accounting Dept., March 17; Missouri Farmer's Assoc., March 18; Bankers Life of Iowa, March 22; Kansas City, Ks. Schools, March 23; Upjohn Co., March 23; Bettendorf Community Schools, March 23; and Lincoln, Neb. Public Schools, March 24. Interviews can be made Friday for the following: Memorial Med. Center, Springfield, Ill., March 28; Oscar Meyer Co., March 29; Missouri Board of Probation and Parole, March 30; Missouri Dept. of Agriculture, March 31; and Cedar Rapids Community Schools, April 1.

LIFE AFTER LIFE, Raymond A. Moody Jr.'s book, will be discussed tonight at 7 p.m. in the Conference Room of the SUB. Anyone interested in talking about "near-death" experiences is invited to attend.

FRIDAY IS THE DEADLINE for filing your master's degree application if you plan to graduate this spring. Applications must be filed in the Graduate Studies Office, 110 Baldwin Hall.

THE UNIVERSITY PLAYERS will present "Charley's Aunt" March 24-29 in the Little Theatre, Baldwin Hall. The 19th-century farce will be directed by Al Srnka and designed by Bruce Brockman of the drama faculty.

James Endicott, Mike Schuttlefield, and Richard White will perform the roles of the Oxford students, Jack, Charley, and Lord Fancourt. As the girlfriends, Gail Gerdes will appear as Kitty, Susan Brenneman as Amy, and Milly Dimmitt as Eta. The elder generation, Brassett, Sir Francis, Spettigue, and Donna Lucia will be played by Richard Daut, James Dewey, Jim LeGrand, and Gail Kowal.

Admission to the production will be by University I.D. or $2 for adults and $1 for non-University students.

"SHAMROCKS AGAINST MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY," a fund donation, will continue through Friday from 10:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m. in the SUB. Donations will go to the Muscular Dystrophy Foundation.

APPLICATIONS FOR THE NAN E. WADE SCHOLARSHIP are available in the SUB concourse through Friday from 10:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m. Applicants must have at least a 2.7 G.P.A., be a full-time student, and demonstrate high qualities of leadership, character, and participation in campus activities. Financial need is an important determinant in choosing the recipient. The scholarship ($50 a semester) is being given by Cardinal Key.

FACULTY NOTES ... Robert Rhoades, Social Science, recently was appointed associate editor of Papers in Anthropology, a journal publication of the University of Oklahoma.

THE NEXT ISSUE OF NORTHEAST TODAY will be distributed tomorrow. Deadline for news items is 10:30 a.m. today. Stop in or call the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center, ext. 7213. Editors: Maggie Jarrett and Bruce Arnold.
