NORTHEAST NOTES

NMSU placed third overall in the District VI Council for the Advancement and Support of Education Awards Competition, as announced last week at the district meeting in Kansas City, Mo.

The Public Relations Office received awards for photography (3), the Viewbook (2), the NEMOSCOPE, "Northeast Today," Purple Pride, the convention folder and Christmas television commercials.

Individuals recognized by CASE were: Thomas R. ShROUT, Jr., director of external affairs; Ray Jagger, photo-journalist; Bill Wehrman, associate design director; Diane Davis, public relations graphics assistant; Les Dunseith, staff assistant in public relations; and Joni Spencer, staff assistant in public relations.

The competition involved 192 institutions of all sizes from 10 states.

Dr. Dean Rosebery, Science, has been elected secretary of the National Association Academies of Science. He was elected while attending a session of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in Washington, D.C., Jan. 3-9.

Registered dietician Carol Friesen, Home Economics, will be a guest on KHQA's Studio 7 show to be aired Friday at 6:15 a.m. and after the late movie on channel 7. The topic of the segment is "Anorexia Nervosa," a disorder characterized by an aversion to food and obsession with weight loss.

Gretchen Cornell, Nursing, has been asked to present two programs in January and February, at the Moberly Regional Medical Center, for registered nurses on leader style and management techniques. She presented a workshop on Dec. 11 at Kirksville Osteopathic Health Center for nursing personnel entitled, "How to Become an Effective Leader."

Heinz Woehlk, Language and Literature, has had his article, "Some Humor in the Bible," published by ERIC, the national resource base of the National Council of Teachers of English.

Shirley Morahan, Language and Literature, presented a paper, "Finding Our Voice: The Professional Writing Block," at the Modern Language Association Conference in New York, N.Y., in December.
