The first part of the book is a history of the movement from its early days to the present time. It is a very interesting and well written account of the growth and development of the movement. The author has done a great deal of research and
 has gathered a wealth of material which he has put together in a very clear and concise manner. The book is a valuable contribution to the history of the movement and is well worth reading.
 The second part of the book is a study of the present situation of the movement. It is a very interesting and well written account of the present situation of the movement. The author has done a great deal of research and
 has gathered a wealth of material which
 he has put together in a very clear and
 concise manner. The book is a valuable contribution to the history of the
 movement and is well worth reading.
 The third part of the book is a study of the future of the movement. It is a very interesting and well written account of the future of the movement.
 The author has done a great deal of research and has gathered a wealth of material which he has put together in a very clear and concise manner. The book is a valuable contribution to the history of the movement and is well worth reading.

- Aug 6 Monday, nice weather. Today we got ready to drive to Vancouver tomorrow. We started at 10:50 this a.m. and drove to Castle Rock Washington.
- Aug 7 Tuesday sunny & nice. We drove from Castle Rock to Mt. St. Helens. It was a beautiful drive. The disaster area was something a person must see to fully comprehend the extent of the damage. We drove on to Vancouver Canada this afternoon. Harold's house is very big and very nice. Merle and I stayed at Harold's house. Mark & Tina stayed at the Dave Higgins Home. Harold's house has two large apartments besides a large room for Harold's private use.
- Aug 8 weather real nice. Harold drove us over Vancouver, Robeson street and other places. We had a picnic on the beach with Harold, Mark & Tina and the David Higgins family. We also visited Stanley Park and rode the train.
- Aug 9 We stayed at Harold's house last night. We made the final preparations for the trip to Alaska this morning. We went on board the Rotterdam between 2:00 and 2:30 P.M. The Rotterdam is really a luxury cruise ship. It is much bigger than any ship I was ever on and much bigger than any I have ever seen with the exception of the Aircraft carriers. We sailed about 9:30 P.M. We had a good dinner at 6:00 P.M. and a meeting and show after dinner.

Aug 10 We slept good last night. After a good breakfast we had a lifeboat drill at 9:30 this A.M. It was cloudy this morning but cleared about 10:30 A.M. Very nice weather. Windy this afternoon. The scenery is very nice. We had a good Musical show and an extra good Comedian this evening.

Aug 11

We stopped at Ketchikan Alaska about 8:00 this A.M. Weather clear & nice. Merle and I practiced shuffleboard some this A.M. Stated for Juneau about 3:00 P.M. Bought tickets for the Juneau Mendenhall glacier tour tomorrow morning. Watched the shore slide by a couple of hours this P.M. Nice scenery. Good programs this evening. Round dancing, Pro dancers, an extra good pro. Violinist, old fashioned sing along.

Aug 12

Sunday light rain this morning. The first rain we have had on this trip. We went on the Juneau Mendenhall glacier tour. The glacier was very big and interesting. Juneau, the Capital of Alaska stretches for miles along the shore and seems very busy. We met and talked to a lot of interesting people.

Aug 13

Monday cloudy this A.M. Cleared about noon. We saw a whale as we were on our way to glacier Bay. The scenery was very nice here. Lots of glaciers, some on the mountains and some (tidewater) extending into the ocean. A government person on the ship told us there had been an earthquake just a few days before. Parts of the bay was covered with broken pieces of ice from the glaciers. We stopped near one and watched the pieces of ice break from the glacier. (Called Calving) We had lunch at the Lido Restaurant on the ship. We usually <sup>eat</sup> at our regular dining room but today we were too busy watching the glaciers and the regular lunch was over. The Lido was a Cabaret and really good food. We watched Bingo "horse racing" this P.M. I lost $1.00 in a slot machine. After dinner we had good entertainment, Krazy Klondike Cafes, Big Band sound and dancing. Later we were entertained by the Indo-China Crew and the Philippine Musicians. The Indo-China Crew sang and danced. They made music with their native band instruments. We got to bed after midnight.

Aug 14 Clear this morning and warmer. We went ashore at Sitka did not buy anything. We will not stop now until we get to Vancouver if we have no bad luck. We had a good violinist this evening. The comedian was extra good.

Aug 15 Weather clear + nice. Partly cloudy. We are preparing to leave the ship at Vancouver tomorrow A.M. The "4 on the town" quartet entertained this evening.

Aug 16 Clear + nice. We docked at Vancouver about 7 A.M. We got off the Rotterdam just after 10 A.M. Harold, Mark + Tina met us. We slept at Harold's room this P.M. Then went walking. Harold took us and David + Gladys Higgins out to dinner this evening. Mark + Tina and George Higgins were also with us.

Nov 5 Monday Clear + warm. Tomorrow is presidential election. Reagan + Mondale are running for president and Ferraro + Bush are running for vice-president. The polls show Reagan and Bush far ahead but tomorrow will tell the tale.

Nov 6 Tuesday Clear + Warm Election Day. The polls show Reagan + Bush far in the lead but the polls have been far from right. We are glad we have already voted absentee ballots and won't have to go to the polls to vote. Everyone expects an extra big turnout at the polls. All the candidates for president and Vice-president have been working very hard.
9:00 P.M. The networks have projected the returns on a national scale. They say that Reagan + Bush have carried every state in the 48 but Minnesota. The Democrats carried Minnesota and the District of Columbia. Nothing on Hawaii and Alaska.

Nov 7 Wednesday Clear + warm. Nothing new on the election except the big increase in turnout is reported as less than 1%. I took Mark, Tina and Erin to German lessons.
