SENATOR JOHN C. DANFORTH

Senator John C. Danforth, a fifth-generation Missourian, will present today's 1979 Spring Commencement Address at Northeast Missouri State University, an institution which has a proud tradition of educating Missourians since 1867.

Born and raised in the St. Louis area, Senator Danforth received his secondary education at St. Louis County Day School. He received a Bachelor of Arts Degree with honors from Princeton University in 1958. In 1963, he received a Bachelor of Divinity Degree from Yale Divinity School and a Bachelor of Laws Degree from Yale Law School. Senator Danforth is believed to be the only person to have received these two degrees from Yale University on the same date.

After graduation, Senator Danforth practiced law in New York City. In 1966, he returned to St. Louis and practiced law with the firm of Bryan, Cave, McPheeters and McRoberts.

In November, 1968, he successfully ran for the office of Attorney General of Missouri and was reelected in 1972.

In 1976, Senator Danforth was elected to the United States Senate. He now serves on the Finance, Commerce and Governmental Affairs Committees.

Senator Danforth is married to the former Sally Dobson of St. Louis. He is the father of five children, Eleanor, Mary, D.D., Jody, and Tom.

“OLD MISSOU”

“Old Missou” and “Old Missouri”

Our hearts the school has won,

Fondly cling we to the mem’ry

Of old “Missouri’s Son.”

Gladly thee our hearts we tender

By the dim and flick’ring light,

Every lad a proud defender

Of the Purple and the White.
