Students Present Musical Satire

The University Players and the Franklin Street Singers will present the musical satire "Tomfoolery," July 26-29, in Baldwin Hall Little Theatre. The show will be presented each evening at 8 p.m. Free tickets are available to students, faculty and staff in the Student Union Building Office. A University

ID must be presented.

The words and music of "Tomfoolery" were written by Tom Lehrer, a mathematics professor at Harvard University. The work has been adapted by Cameron Mackintosh and Robin Ray. The musical satirizes everything from politics to motherhood to the boy scouts.

The cast includes Kenner Bailey, Tasha Cogan, Dan Krumm, Sharon Roetger, Brian Sharp, Trent Webb and Chris Wooten.
