VOL. 1 NO. 11

THIS WEEK...

THE FIRST PIRANHA AWARD applications are being accepted by Student Senate between 8:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m., today through Thursday, in the Senate Office in the Student Union Building. The award is designed so students can recognize tough, demanding and effective instructors who display a commitment to the learning process. Students may vote on nominees April 1, in the SUB, at a penny per vote. The instructor with the most votes will be recognized and receive a plaque.

PRINCE AND THE REVOLUTION in concert will be re-created from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Wednesday, at the Oz. Tickets will be sold for $3.50 beginning today in the Student Union Building. No alcoholic beverages will be sold during the performance. The event is sponsored by the Higher Education Network and KRXL-FM radio.

TALENT SHOW AUDITIONS will be held from 8:30 to 10 p.m. Wednesday, and from 7 to 10 p.m. Sunday, in Missouri Hall. Participants may enter in individual, house or organization categories. There is no entry fee and gag prizes will be awarded by the Missouri Hall Activities Committee (MOHAC). Audition sign-up is at the hall desk, 785-5383. Showtime is at 8 p.m., April 21, in Missouri Hall cafeteria.

LYCEUM PRESENTS John Chappell's one-man show, "Clarence Darrow, Defender of the Damned," at 8 p.m. Thursday, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. Students, faculty and staff may pick up free tickets today through Thursday at the Student Activities Board Office in the Student Union Building, or at the door. Use of recording equipment during the performance is prohibited.

A BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT is being sponsored by Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc., Friday through Sunday in Kirk Gym. Teams will be scheduled to play between 7 and 11 a.m. Friday, 5 to 11 p.m. Saturday and 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sunday. Entry fee is $25 per team. The tournament bracket will be single elimination preliminaries, double elimination semifinals if 16 or more teams enter; double elimination if less than 16 teams enter. Tournament officials will enforce intramural rules.

AN ESSAY WRITING CONTEST, focused on women and history, is being sponsored by the Kirksville National Organization for Women for undergraduate and graduate students. Entries of a minimum length of 1,500 words and a stamped self-addressed envelope must be submitted by Friday to the NOW mailbox in the Student Union Building. For more information, call Shirley Morahan at 785-4494.

FREE INCOME TAX ASSISTANCE is available from the Accounting Club between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. Saturday, in 140 Violette Hall. To receive Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA), participants should bring their federal and state return forms, their W-2s and a copy of last year's return.

EARLY RETIREMENT APPLICATIONS are available in the President's Office, 200 Administration/Humanities Building. Deadline for those desiring early retirement during the 1985 fiscal year, established by the Board of Regents, is Sunday. For more information, call the President's Office at 785-4100.

THE HOCKER CAREER LECTURE, sponsored by Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity and the Goetze Educational Foundation, is set for 9:45 a.m. to 2:45 p.m. Saturday, in the Student Union Building. Ed Phelps, personnel manager for Louis Rich Co., speaks at the opening session on the topic, "Getting Your First Job." Carl Fisher, executive vice president of one of America's leading bank corporations, speaks on "Careers" at 12:30 p.m. At 1:30 p.m., Steve Eleton, controller for Flowback Land and Cattle Co. and NEMO Coal, will hold a seminar on careers in business, along with Irwin Brick, head of Teller Training Center of St. Louis, presenting "Entrepreneurship"; Robert Fowler, vice president of marketing for Learfield Communications, on "Sales and Marketing"; and Jerry Primm, an educational administrator from Rockport, Ill., on education. Price for the lecture is $7, lunch included.

THE INTERNATIONAL DINNER has been rescheduled for 5:30 p.m. Sunday, in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. Tickets are $5 for adults, $4.50 for students and $2.50 for children under 12. Tickets are on sale at the International Student Office and in the SUB.
