

Northeast Today

NMSU

MONDAY, Feb. 23, 1981

BULLETIN BOARD

NEW CAMPUS DIRECTORIES are being prepared by the President's and Publications offices. These directories will contain telephone numbers for residence halls and campus offices. Directories will be distributed free of charge with the "Northeast Today" March 9. The new switchboard becomes operational March 13.

ROTARY SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS will be accepted until March 1. Any graduate or undergraduate whose immediate relative is not a Rotarian may apply. Included in the scholarship award are paid expenses to and from a foreign country plus a subsistence allowance for one year's study and travel. More information may be obtained by contacting Ray Klingensmith, general counsel, in 210 Administration/Humanities Building, extension 7201.

RESIDENT ASSISTANT APPLICATIONS for the fall 1981 semester are now available in the Housing Office, 101 Administration/Humanities Building. Applicants must have lived in a residence hall for one semester, have completed more than 32 credit hours when their position is assumed and hold a 2.5 cumulative grade point average. All interested candidates may inquire at the Housing Office or attend any of the information nights scheduled this week: 7 p.m. today in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building, 7 p.m. Tuesday in Missouri Hall Cafeteria, 8 p.m. Wednesday in Ryle Hall Music Lounge, or 7 p.m. Thursday in Centennial Hall Music Lounge.

FREE BLOOD PRESSURE CHECKS will be administered in the Biofeedback Clinic, 206 Administration/Humanities Building, from 11:30 a.m. to noon each Monday.

APPLICATIONS FOR FINANCIAL AID are available in the Financial Aids Office, 100 Administration/Humanities Building. Guaranteed Bank Loans and Financial Aid applications are due April 1 to insure aid will be ready by the start of the summer session. Loan applications for the 1981-82 academic year are due June 1.

AN EXECUTIVE-IN-RESIDENCE will present three programs Tuesday in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. Robert P. Gardner, a 1959 business administration graduate of NMSU and vice president of sales and marketing for Wham-O Manufacturing Company, will speak about business careers. Programs are at 10:30 and 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. All interested persons are invited to attend. There is no admission charge.

JOB INTERVIEWS with five companies will be held this week. Today representatives from the Columbia Regional Hospital will interview nursing majors. Tuesday Wal-Mart Stores Inc. and Square-D Co. will conduct interviews with business administration majors and industrial technology majors. Reinmund, Brown and Meek will interview accounting majors Wednesday and Mutual of Omaha Computer Data Services will interview students of all majors who have at least nine hours of computer science on Thursday. For more information about the interviews and to sign up for appointments, contact the Career Planning and Placement Center, first floor, Blanton Hall.

NMSU PRE-VET CLUB meets at 7 p.m. today in 212 Science Hall. A program titled "Horses: Nutrition and Related Health Problems" will be presented by Pat Comerford, assistant professor of animal science. There is no admission charge to the program and the public is invited to attend.

A SKI TRIP to Fun Valley, Iowa, is planned for March 22 by the Student Activities Board Excursions Committee. Cost is $13 for SAB cardholders, $15 for others, and covers transportation and ski equipment. Sign-up begins today in the SAB Office, Student Union Concourse. Forty-four spaces are open.

REGISTRATION PACKETS for students planning to pre-register for summer and fall will be available from 1-4 p.m. March 9-11 outside the Registrar's Office, 104 Administration/Humanities Building. Lost packets will not be replaced until regular registration in June. Pre-registration is scheduled to begin April 6.

TICKETS FOR THE ST. LOUIS STEAMERS indoor soccer team will be available at a reduced rate from the Student Activities Board. The tickets, originally priced at $4 per person, will be sold for $3 at the SAB Office, Student Union Concourse, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. this week. The game will be played Friday in St. Louis against the Buffalo Stallions. Transportation details will be announced at a later date, but students may arrange for their own transportation.

A VARSITY SOCCER TEAM AND SOCCER CLUB is being organized by Jeff Wolfe, soccer coach. Students interested in participating in the club or joining the varsity team should contact him immediately to be included in mandatory spring practice sessions. For more information contact Wolfe at extension 2213.

SPRING BREAK BEGINS FRIDAY at 5 p.m. Classes will resume March 9.

HAPPENINGS

DELTA SIGMA PI professional business fraternity is sponsoring a program on employment with Southwestern Bell Telephone. Guest speaker will be Jim Adams, vice president of Missouri operations for Southwestern Bell. The program is at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building, and the public is invited to attend.

STUDENT PARTICIPATION PARTY will hold an organizational meeting at 7 p.m. Wednesday in Room 2 of the Student Union Building. Students interested in running for a seat on the 1981-82 Student Senate or wishing to assist SPP during the upcoming campaign are invited to attend. Contact party members Larry Lunsford, extension 2808, or Sherry McGovern, 665-0938, for more information.

PHI DELTA KAPPA is offering scholarships to an undergraduate and a graduate student working toward education degrees. Applications and further information about the scholarship are available from committee members Emil Green, 103 Blanton Hall, extension 7235; Jack Magruder, 215 Science Hall, extension 3318; and Jim Thomas, 333 Administration/Humanities Building, extension 2074.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS will hold an open meeting at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in Room 4 of the Student Union Building. All current members and interested students are invited to attend.

THE PRE-LAW CLUB has rescheduled a program with Mary Krummenacher, a law school representative from St. Louis University, at 1 p.m. Thursday in Room 4 of the Student Union Building. All prospective law students and interested persons are invited to attend.

STUDY AND TUTOR SESSIONS will be held each Sunday evening by members of the Alpha Tau Omega social fraternity. Most general education, lower level business and science courses will be tutored from 8-9:30 p.m. in 230 Violette Hall.

STUDENT MISSOURI STATE TEACHERS ASSOCIATION will hold an open meeting at 4:30 p.m. today in 265 Violette Hall.

THE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR WOMEN will sponsor a "Susan B. Anthony Birthday Party" at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in 300 Administration/Humanities Building. Ruth Towne, professor of history, will speak on Anthony and the women's rights movement. Refreshments will be provided. All interested persons are invited to attend the free program.

A WORKSHOP ON JOB-SEEKING SKILLS will be sponsored by the Career Planning Center March 12-19. The workshop, titled "What Color is Your Parachute?" will be presented on a first-come, first-served basis. Sign up will be held in the Career Planning Center, first floor, Blanton Hall, until March 11. For more information contact CPC at extension 7228.

THE COUNSELOR EDUCATION ASSOCIATION will meet at 4:30 p.m. today in 100 Blanton Hall. The group has also planned a brown bag luncheon for 12:30 p.m. Wednesday in 172 Violette Hall. Sal Costa, instructor in psychology, will present a program on human sexuality and hypnosis. Interested persons are invited to attend the events.

"TWO HOURS OF THREE STOOGES" will be the Phi Sigma Epsilon social fraternity movie presentation at 7 and 9 p.m. Tuesday in Baldwin Auditorium. Advance tickets are on sale in the Student Union Concourse for $1.50 and are available at the door for $2.

ECHO GROUP PICTURES are in. Group members who ordered copies should contact Patty Sinak, managing editor, at extension 3343.

THE UNIVERSITY PLAYERS will present "God's Favorite," a Neil Simon play, at 8 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday in 180 Baldwin Hall. Admission to the comedy is free.

THE GERMAN FILM "FIDELIO" will be shown at 4:30 p.m. today in 290 Violette Hall. The film may be of special interest to Ludwig and opera fans and will be shown free to the public.

NORTHEAST NOTES

Bryce Jones, Business, has received notification that his article, "Moral Values in the Workplace," has been accepted for publication in Interdisciplinary Perspectives, published for the Association for General and Liberal Studies by Boston University.

Talley Sue Hohlfeld, junior mass communication major, was recently selected for the 1981 American Society of Magazine Editors Internship Program. Hohlfeld will serve the 10-week summer internship in New York City.

Jim Thomas, Language and Literature, has been notified by the editors of Just Pulp literary magazine that two of his poems, titled "Super" and "Close Ones," will appear in forthcoming issues.

Ronald Knight, Mathematics, will present a paper titled "Dynamical Systems Satisfying Certain Stability and Recursive Criteria," at the International Symposium on Dynamical Systems, Feb. 25-27 at the University of Florida-Gainesville.

Wayne Bailey, Mathematics, will chair a session at the Special Interest Group on Computer Science Education symposium to be held Feb. 26-27 in St. Louis.

Charles D. Urban, Health, Physical Education and Recreation, recently had an article published in Athletic Training titled "A Re-examination of Lewis' Cold-Induced Vasodilation—in the Finger and the Ankle."

Submissions for the "Northeast Today" special calendar edition must be turned in to McKinney Center by 5 p.m. Wednesday. The calendar edition will be published March 9.