Dr. P. O. Selby

Founder of Pi Omega Pi at National Meeting

Dr. P. O. Selby, 1911, Dean Emeritus at NMSC, was the featured speaker at the twenty-fifth anniversary of Pi Omega Pi national business education fraternity at Wisconsin State University. The observance was held April 27 at the University at Whitewater, Wisconsin. Pi Omega Pi was established by Dr. Selby on the campus of NMSC in 1923 and was the first such chapter in the nation. In 1927 the fraternity became a national organization and at the present time there are approximately 130 chapters. Dr. Selby reviewed the history of the fraternity since its inception and the program was video taped so that it can be replayed at other chapters throughout the country who will be observing the silver anniversary.

ROTC Personnel Arrives on Campus; Program to Open for Freshmen in Fall

President Elkins Welcomes Col. Gerrity

Army personnel, headed by Colonel John F. Gerrity, have arrived on the campus of NMSC for the implementation of the college ROTC program.

Five of the eventual eleven army personnel have reported for duty in addition to Colonel Gerrity, professor of Military Science, Major Donald M. Currie, Captain Roy A. Collar, Staff Sgt. Leo L. Martelon, and Staff Sgt. Benny C. David.

The staff is busy arranging for supplies, publications and the development of lesson plans and subject schedules according to Colonel Gerrity.

The program will be introduced into the college beginning with the fall semester of 1969. The first and third years of the ROTC program will be implemented. ROTC will be compulsory for the beginning freshmen and one semester hour of credit will be recorded for each semester successfully completed during the first two years. Three hours of college credit will be given for each semester in the junior and senior years. Those students completing the four years will be commissioned as 2nd lieutenants in the Army according to Colonel Gerrity.

The ROTC unit will come directly under the command and administrative control of the Fifth Army with headquarters in Chicago and the logistics support will be provided by Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri.

Holding the award is assistant coach Willard Sims, who accepted the plaque on behalf of King, in Louisville, Kentucky.

judgement and superb professional knowledge, he greatly enhanced the combat effectiveness of his unit. During Operation Hue City, Major Youngman supervised the displacement of the Battalion Command group to the besieged city where the battalion engaged a numerically superior North Vietnamese army force in fierce house-to-house fighting. With complete disregard for his own safety, he repeatedly moved to the front lines to personally assess the situation and coordinate all available supporting arms. On February 24, under his skillful coordination, the battalion launched a night attack against a reinforced enemy battalion entrenched south of the Phy Cam canal and defeated the hostile force. The battalion accounted for 720 confirmed enemy dead during the operation. Major Youngman's courage and leadership and devotion to duty throughout, contributed significantly to the accomplishment of his unit's mission and are in keeping with the tradition of the Marine Corps." Russell Sloan

Sloan Named Football Mentor by Regents

Russell Sloan has been appointed head football coach at Northeast Missouri State College in Kirksville. The announcement was made at noon Friday, March 21 by James R. Reinhard, president of the College Board of Regents.

The 30-year old Sloan, who had served as an assistant coach for the Bulldog team since August 1, 1968, replaces Marv Braden, who resigned earlier this year to become head mentor at the U. S. International University, California Western campus, San Diego.

Before coming to the State College, the new football coach directed teams at Carthage High School for four years, compiling a 22-14-2 record. During his last three seasons at Carthage, his editions posted a 19-7-2 mark.

Sloan, a product of Columbia Hickman High School, earned Big Eight honors, and received All-American Honorable Mention as an end at the University of Missouri, playing under the tutelage of three Tiger coaches, Don Faurot, Frank Broyles and Dan Devine, from 1956-59. During his senior season, he performed on Missouri's 1960 Orange Bowl squad, and was invited to participate in the Hula Bowl. After his graduation from the University in 1960 with a B.S. degree, he signed and played with the New York Titans (now the Jets) until a chronic hamstring pull in the summer exhibition campaign ended his professional gridiron career. Sloan returned to Missouri to begin work toward his

Spring Sports Progress; Tennis Squad Champs

All spring sports were in full swing as the Nemoscope went to press. Some of the teams did not get off to an auspicious start, but they began to show improvement by mid-April.

Coach Boyd King's golfers dropped their first match to Lincoln University, 10½-7½, and then bounced back to subdue Centerville (Ia.) Community College, 12½-5½. The baseball team, under the guidance of Sam Nugent, was in the midst of a tailspin until sweeping a doubleheader from Westminster, 8-7 and 15-11, to increase its ledger to 4-9. Second baseman Jack Sapp of Donnellson, Iowa, topped regulars in hitting with a .324 average. Reliever Ted Wilson of Florissant paced hurlers with a sparkling 0.41 earned-run average.

Bulldog trackmen had the unique and disappointing experience in coming home from the annual Indoor Meet with a second-place finish. Coach Kenneth Gardner's harriers had previously captured 10 straight titles, but Southeast Missouri dethroned the purple and white this year. Gardner's thinclads also placed second in the Kansas State Relays. In outdoor competition, they earned several high finishes at the Emporia (Kan.) State Relays, but were a distant third behind Missouri University and Southeast Missouri in a triangular on April 8 at Columbia.

At press time, Coach H. A. Walmsley's tennis squad had just captured the annual Northeast Missouri State College Indoor Invitational for the sixth time in the last seven years. The netmen had also recorded a 5-1 dual mark, and claimed the championship of the Drake University Invitational. Sophomore Kurt Marin of St. Louis was the only undefeated singles performer.

M.S. degree, serving the fall of 1960 as an assistant freshman coach.

He was appointed assistant coach for football, basketball and baseball at Hickman High in 1961. Before moving to Carthage, Sloan was head football mentor at Centralia and Higginsville High Schools.

He is married to the former Peggy Fisher, and they have three children, Douglas, 8, Matt, 6, and Lori, 3.

Ice House Players Set to Open Second Season at Hannibal

The Ice House Players, a joint project of Northeast Missouri State College and the Historic Foundation of Hannibal, will open their second season of summer theatre on July 8th in the Ice House Theatre in Hannibal. The plays feature American drama to the residents of and visitors to the Mark Twain area, running through August 16th.

The Ice House Theatre itself was the first ice house west of the Mississippi and has been a part of Hannibal's history since 1854 as the Stillwell Cold Storage Company.

Queen Victoria's table was once bountifully supplied with meat from Hannibal. Most of the crowned heads of Europe enjoyed the Stillwell Export Ham, the top quality brand of the company. It was served on transatlantic crossings and on crack passenger trains in the late 1800's.

In the summer of 1912, the storage company was the scene of another gala occasion, the Ice House Ball. Called the social event of the season, the ball was famous as the first "air-conditioned" party in known history.

The 1969 season will feature five plays to be performed in repertory including A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court, adopted from the Mark Twain novel by Evelyn Patrick; Wait Until Dark by Frederick Knott; Arsenic and Old Lace by Joseph Kesselring; Born Yesterday by Garson Kanin; and, The Rainmaker by N. Richard Nash.

The main staff positions in the company will be held by J. G. Severns, Alfred H. Srnka, and O. J. Merrell, all of the drama faculty of the Division of Language and Literature, Northeast Missouri State College, Kirksville. In the resident company of actors and managers will be Melody Conner, Garry Cox, Judith Cox, Larry Fortney, Pat Harris, Gerry McKiddy, Tom Moon, Steve Rose, Larry Soller, and Geri Walker. Those who will be student members of the company will include Ed Anthonis, Cecelia Aubrey, Russell Becherer, Frank Cottone, Kevin Elledge, Del Oliver, Robert Rippenkoeger, Gary Strand, Deni Travis, and Jon Wilcox. Further casting and technical personnel selection will be made from residents of Hannibal.
