Dr. Charles H. Karelis
Director, Fund for the Improvement of Post Secondary Education

Charles H. Karelis, chairman of the philosophy department at Williams College in Massachusetts, is director of the Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education (FIPSE) for the U.S. Department of Education.

He received his bachelor's degree from Williams College in 1966. He earned his Ph.D. at Oxford University in 1972 and has served on the Williams College faculty since that time.

From June to October 1985, Karelis was appointed as special assistant to the U.S. Secretary of Education. He then took over the directorship of FIPSE.

Karelis has written a wide variety of books, articles and reviews on issues ranging from sleight-of-hand, to art, to gun control. He recently completed three articles on higher education to be published in Liberal Education; "A Note on Democracy and Liberal Education," "The Limitations of Leadership" and "Financing Higher Education: A Proposal for Reform." He has also delivered presentations across the United States and around the world on liberal education.

Karelis is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and was co-editor of the Berkshire Review from 1974-79. He is chairman of the Excepted Personnel Advisory Committee for the U.S. Department of Education, a member of the management council in the Office of Postsecondary Education for the Department of Education, and a member of the advisory panel on postsecondary education for the American Council on Education.

“OLD MISSOU”

*“Old Missou” and “Old Missouri”
Our hearts the school has won,
Fondly cling we to the mem’ry
Of old “Missouri’s Son.”
Gladly thee our hearts we tender
By the dim and flick’ring light
Every lad a proud defender
Of the Purple and the White.*
