TEACHER-MADE INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS for special needs children are on display at Pickler Memorial Library. They were developed at the 1982 Conference on Special Education. The 1983 Conference on Special Education titled "Teacher-Made Materials for Special Needs Learners" will feature new ideas and materials. The conference meets July 18-22 from 2-5 p.m. in 278 Violette Hall. Three Schuyler County teachers, Helen Applegate, Marjorie Gibson and Wanda Lindquist, will make special presentations July 19. For more information contact Linnea Anderson, professor of special education, at 785-4679.

SIX FLAGS discount cards are available in the Public Relations Office. The cards offer discount ticket prices for one- and two-day passes throughout the summer and may be picked up in 202 Administration/Humanities Building.

CLASSES BEGIN this afternoon and meet for one hour according to the following special schedule:

- Period 1 (7:30-9:20) meets from 1-1:50 p.m.
Period 2 (9:30-11:20) meets from 2-2:50 p.m.
Period 3 (12-1:50) meets from 3-3:50 p.m.
Period 4 (2-3:50) meets from 4-4:50 p.m.

A BOOK SALE, sponsored by the Veterans Club, will be held Monday through Wednesday on the third floor of the Student Union Building for students who need to buy or sell books for the second session.

SENIOR TESTS will be given Tuesday at 3 p.m. in 103 Administration/Humanities Building. Students who plan to graduate at the end of the summer session and who did not take the test during the fall or spring semesters should contact the Testing Office, A/H 103, at 785-4140 in order to have their names placed on the list to take the test.

FREE ADD/DROP is in effect through Thursday. A $5 fee will be charged for schedule changes beginning Friday.

SUMMER RECREATION SIGN-UP and an informational meeting will be held at 7 p.m., Tuesday, in the Centennial Hall Lounge. Students are invited to sign up for softball, volleyball and other activities. Contact the Student Activities Office, 785-4222, for more information.

"HANKY PANKY" is this week's Student Activities Board movie. The film will be shown at 7 p.m., Wednesday, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. Admission is $1.

"A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE" by Tennessee Williams is the final production in the Summerplay series. The contemporary classic opens at 8 p.m., Thursday, in the Little Theatre and continues through Saturday. The play will close the season July 21-23. Reservations can be made by calling the Box Office, Baldwin Hall, at 785-4515 from 12:30-2:30 p.m. or from 6-8 p.m. Tickets are $4 and $3 for the general public. NMSU students, faculty and staff are admitted for $1.

A FREE PARENTING CLASS, sponsored by the Adair Family T.E.A.M., will be held from 7-9 p.m. on Monday. The class will be held at the Child Development Center on West Normal, and topics will include general child development, nutrition, discipline and at-home activities with children. Child care will be provided. For more information call Cynthia Bliem, temporary instructor of home economics, at 785-4475.
