JAMES SPAINHOWER, TREASURER FOR THE STATE OF MISSOURI, will be on campus tomorrow to speak on "Religion and Government" at 7 p.m. in the Tangerine Room of the SUB. Spainhower's discussion is part of the United Campus Ministry's continuing "Christian World Series." The meeting is open to anyone and a question-and-answer session will follow his presentation.

Spainhower has been active in church affairs since his ordination as a minister of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and currently serves as a member of the Board of Higher Education for the Christian Church and chairman of the Division of Higher Education for the Missouri Council of Churches.

THE 1ST ANNUAL COMPETITIVE Exhibition of high school art is on display in the University Gallery located on the second floor of Baldwin Hall. The pieces are by area high school seniors and will be on display every day through April 5 from 1-5 p.m.

"UP WITH PEOPLE" will be on campus April 20 in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. More information in upcoming issues of Northeast Today.

REMINDER ON EARLY PAYDAY ... Students are reminded that they must turn in their University payroll cards and work-study time cards by noon Friday in order to be paid on April 7. Time cards received after noon Friday will be paid on May 5.

GRADUATE CLASS ENDOWMENT ... The '76-'77 graduate class is accepting donations to the Bill Harman Memorial Scholarship fund. Bill was a graduate assistant in the Teaching Skills Center who died in an automobile accident last Thanksgiving. The fund has been established to assist qualified students in education. Donations may be sent to: Harman Memorial Fund, 267 Violette Hall.

THE UNIVERSITY'S SPORT PARACHUTE CLUB will hold an informational and get acquainted meeting at 7 tonight on the 1st floor of the Kirk Building. There will be an equipment demonstration included on the program. Anyone interested in joining the club is urged to attend.

"THE ROOTS OF MODERN CERAMIC ART" is the topic of a lecture by Garth Clark, British art historian, scholar, and author Monday at 10:30 a.m. in the Little Theatre. Clark is currently touring the United States with his illustrated lecture program which traces ceramics from the 1850's to the present.

THE EXECUTIVE IN RESIDENCE PROGRAM of the Business Division is sponsoring a visit by Van B. Phillips, retired vice president and general manager of the Marketing Division of Eastman Kodak Company Monday and Tuesday. The visit will include several appearances in Business Division classes, a reception from 3-5 p.m. Monday in the Conference Room of the SUB, and an informal discussion on "Affirmative Action Programs," at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the Centennial Hall Dining Room.

"COUPLES," a preparation for marriage group, will meet for four weekly, two-hour sessions beginning at 7 tonight at the Wesley House. Call Ann Hunt (665-2331) or Bobby Waddail (665-4841) to register.

"JOE KID," starring Clint Eastwood, will be shown by the Missouri Hall Residence Council at 8:30 p.m. Friday in Kirk Gym. Admission is $1.

"SPRING CELEBRATION FESTIVAL" ... The Society for the Development of Human Potential is sponsoring a "Spring Celebration Festival" April 29 on the Student Union mall. An organizational meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m., April 6, in the Alumni Room of the SUB for anyone wishing to participate in the festival. To date, the program will include musical performances, readings by area poets and writers, art and craft exhibits and demonstrations, and experiments in drama.

All University departments, organizations, and clubs are encouraged to participate. For more information contact Dan Cass (665-7704) or Ron Morris (665-1334).

TICKET SALES START TODAY for the 8th Annual Folk Show April 5-6 in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. Advance tickets at 75¢ are available in the SUB. Tickets at the door will be $1. The show is sponsored by Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity.

THE LIBRARY IS LOOKING for unique hobbies, class projects, or collections which can be used as displays. There are various areas of display (glass cases, windows, and bulletin boards) on all three floors. If you are interested, please contact one of the following library staff members: Lesley Wilson (3407), Melinda Hettinger (3407), Paula Hamlin (2777 or 3306), Eleanor Ellebracht (2749) or Valerie Vaughn (2748).
