CHARLES C. CAMPBELL

Charles C. Campbell has served the education profession in many roles—high school science teacher, public school administrator and university dean. He has taught elementary, secondary and college students.

He presently is assistant dean of the Extension Division of the University of Missouri-Columbia. Through its programs the division reaches more than one-half million Missourians annually.

At Northeast Missouri State University, Dean Campbell was selected as the first dean of administration and served in that role from 1970-74.

Most of his undergraduate and graduate work was completed at UMC with additional research at the University of California under the auspices of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, Boston.

He belongs to many honorary scholastic societies including Phi Delta Kappa education honorary.

Dean Campbell has been vice president of the National School Public Relations Association, a special consultant on the Governor's Conference on Education and chairman of several committees of the Missouri State Teachers Association. He has been elected to "American Leaders in Education" and was named to the "Outstanding Community Leaders of America" compendium in 1971.

“OLD MISSOU”

“Old Missou” and “Old Missouri”

Our hearts the school has won,

Fondly cling we to the mem’ry

Of old “Missouri’s Son.”

Gladly thee our hearts we tender

By the dim and flick’ring light,

Every lad a proud defender

Of the Purple and the White.
