Northeast Missouri State University

Vol. 7, No. 8

February 27, 1989

The Journalism Foundation of Metropolitan St. Louis invites St. Louis metropolitan residents to apply for the 1989-90 journalism scholarships. Students of journalism or related fields are eligible. Application deadline is March 1. Contact the Financial Aid Office, A/H 100, for applications.

Free tickets for the March 14 performance of the State Ballet of Missouri will be available for students, faculty and staff March 2, 3, 14 and 15.

March 2 is the last day to sign up for second-block industrial science courses for spring. Courses include IS 203 Properties of Wood 2.0 hours, IS 207 Intro to Electronics 2.0 hours and IS 302 Synthetic Materials 2.0 hours. For more information call the Division of Industrial Science at 785-4572.

Offices are asked to put throw-away items in the hallways March 3-8, so Physical Plant personnel can haul items on March 9-10. If items are too large to be moved to the hallway, contact Physical Plant to make arrangements to remove them.

Graduate students in literature, English, psychology and counseling and undergraduate students in accounting interested in employment with the General Accounting Office should contact the Business Placement Center, Violette Hall 112. Applications are due by April 5.

Three scholarships in energy management worth $750, $500 and $250 are being offered to full-time students. Women in Energy Inc. is making the scholarships available. To be eligible, a student must be a junior or senior, enrolled in a Missouri college or university, have a 3.0 GPA and major in home economics, journalism, business, education, engineering, science or an energy-related field. Entries are due by March 1. For more information contact Wanda Eubank, Scholarship Committee Chairwoman, 162 Stanley Hall, Columbia, Mo. 65211 or call (313) 882-3239.

The Business Placement Center has made arrangements for participation of NMSU students in the Illinois Collegiate Job Fair in Chicago on March 4, and for the Gateway to Careers Job Fair in St. Louis on March 10. For more details, contact the Business Placement Center, Violette Hall 112, at 785-4353.

The Business Placement Center has internship information files available to students. Specific resources listing internship sites, company names and addresses are available. Stop by the BPC, Violette Hall 112, for more information.

Students graduating in May 1989 are reminded that applications were due in the Registrar's Office Feb. 3. Late applications will be accepted through March 3 only. The graduation list will be compiled the week of March 6 and graduation packets will be mailed to all graduating students with approved applications on file by March 15.

Students interested in a teaching profession should stop by the Education Division Office, Violette Hall 258, and place a second major of pre-elementary education, pre-secondary education or pre-special education on the University Student Records System if they haven't already.

The Residence Life Office is now located in A/H 204. All inquiries regarding housing for currently enrolled students should be directed to Vonnice Nichols, assistant dean of the colleges, at 785-4227 or 785-4133.

The Student Activities Office is now located in the Student Union Office. Questions regarding student organizations should be directed to Denise Rendina at 785-4222.

Limited space is available for renewal of campus accommodations. The four Residential Colleges require that students who wish to renew to them, and students who wish to join them, should get an application from the college office of their preferred College. Application forms will be available on March 13. They must be returned to the same college office by March 22. Students will be informed whether they have been invited to the College before sign-up on April 12-13.

Science Peer Advisors are available from 7-9 p.m. on Wednesdays in Science Hall 263. Call Mary Duncan, student counselor, at 665-1660 during those hours for tutoring and other science-related information. Duncan is also available noon-3 p.m. Monday-Friday and 8-11 a.m. Wednesdays and Fridays.

Conference Addresses Women's Issues

The first NMSU Women's Conference will be held on campus April 2 from 1-6 p.m. The conference is designed to help women realize their potential at Northeast, in their community and in the world. Due to limited resources, participation will be reserved for the first 100 women who sign up. Registration will begin at 8 a.m. Feb. 27 in the Student Union Office. Cost is $2.

Lecture topics will include politics and women; women's lives, past and present; and family and career. Among several guest speakers to be featured are Shirley Morahan, associate professor of English; Mina Carson, assistant professor of history; and Lori Haxton, Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine director of admissions and enrollment services. Rep. Katie Steele (D-Mo.) will give the closing address.

For further information, contact Denise Rendina, student activities coordinator, at 785-4222.
