A FRISBEE-THROWING CONTEST will be held from 10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday on the front lawn of Centennial Hall. First, second and third place prizes will be given for accuracy in men's and women's categories. The contest, sponsored by Student Activities, is open to the public.

ALL UNIVERSITY OFFICES will be closed and classes will not meet on Wednesday in observance of Independence Day. University activities will resume Thursday.

A SPECIAL CONCERT, modeled after the traditional Fourth of July presentation of the Boston Pops Orchestra at the River Charles, will be at 8 tonight in Baldwin Auditorium. Featured players include Fine Arts faculty members James Buckner, instructor in trumpet, and Dr. Lewis Danfelt, professor of music. Conductors will be Dr. William E. FitzSimmons, professor of music, and Dr. Dale A. Jorgenson, head of the Division of Fine Arts. As an added attraction, the University Art Gallery, 218 Baldwin Hall, will be open for an exhibition in ceramics by Melissa Hogenson, graduate student.

FINAL EXAMS for the first term of summer session will be given Friday in regularly scheduled classes.

APPLICATIONS FOR GRADUATION are due Friday for undergraduate students who plan to graduate at the end of the summer. Forms are available in the Registrar's Office, 104 Administration/Humanities Building, or in division offices.

RESERVED FOR SERVICE CONTRACT PARKING SPACES between the Administration/Humanities Building and Baldwin Hall must be left open for the use of repair people called to keep equipment operating in such areas as Stenographic, Data Processing and Business Office. Safety and Security asks the cooperation of University people not to park in these areas. Close enforcement including issuing of tickets has been scheduled for these areas.

SCHOLARS INTERESTED IN TEACHING IN THE USSR can contact the Graduate Office, ext. 7107, about the 1980-81 Lectureships to the USSR. Twenty appointments of four months or longer will be administered by cooperating Soviet agencies. A Ph.D. and college or university teaching experience is required.

CIRCLE K will meet at 4 p.m. today in Room 6 of the Student Union Building. Anyone interested in summer service projects for the community is invited to attend. For further information contact Kim Alexander, president, at 665-3949.

KARATE MEETINGS of the Tae Kwon-Do Club are at 7 p.m. Mondays and Thursdays in the Ophelia Parrish Junior High Gym. The meetings are open to anyone interested in martial arts.

GAME SCHEDULES for this week's softball and volleyball games, sponsored by the Summer Recreational Program of Student Activities, are listed below. SIX FLAGS FUN SEEKERS CLUB CARDS are available at the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center. Any member of the University community may obtain a card to use on a St. Louis vacation. Special rates to Six Flags Over Mid-America and lodging savings at motels and campgrounds are offered.

"NORTHEAST TODAY" will be published once a week on Mondays during the summer. Deadline for news is 9 a.m. Friday. Faculty, staff and students may submit news about official University programs and activities. To insure accuracy, we ask that you write your news and bring it to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center. "Northeast Today" is available in Violette Hall, Student Union Building, Administration/Humanities Building and Pickler Memorial Library.

CAMPS of the 1000 Hills Summer Youth Program will conclude next week with Baton Twirling and Drum Major, High School Jazz and High School boys' Football camps. No camps are scheduled for this week.

THE CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER will be open for the second summer term. Hours are from 7:15 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday through Friday. The center at 200 W. Normal Ave. provides children with a mid-morning snack and a noon lunch. Fees are $15 per week or $75 per term. To enroll a child, parents need not be affiliated with the University. For further information, contact Judy Duden, summer director, at ext. 2740.

A POETRY INTERPRETATION PROGRAM will be given at 8 p.m., Wednesday, July 11, in 305 Administration/Humanities Building by Dr. Marie J. Robinson, professor of drama at Illinois Wesleyan University in Bloomington. She has had articles in several professional publications and is considered an expert in poetry. For more information contact Dr. Glenda Clyde, professor of speech, at ext. 2152.
