ATTORNEY GENERAL JOHN ASHCROFT

John Ashcroft, Missouri's 38th Attorney General, is serving his second term after being reelected on November 4, 1980. In his reelection bid, Ashcroft won by over 580,000 votes, receiving 64.5 percent of the vote, the largest margin and highest percentage by which a Republican has been elected to statewide office in the history of Missouri. Ashcroft also established a new election record for a state official by carrying 96 percent of Missouri's counties.

Ashcroft, 40, is from Springfield, Missouri. He graduated cum laude from Yale University in 1964, majoring in history. Ashcroft received his law degree in 1967 from the University of Chicago, where he met his wife, Janet. The Ashcrofts have three children -- Martha, 13; Jay, 9; and Andrew, 5.

Ashcroft taught business law at Southwest Missouri State University in Springfield for five years. He and his wife co-authored College Law for Business, a textbook used in junior colleges and private schools of business. In June, 1979, the Ashcrofts published their second textbook entitled It's the Law.

John and Janet Ashcroft practiced law in Springfield and lived on their nearby farm until 1973, when he was appointed State Auditor.

In January, 1975, Ashcroft was appointed Assistant Attorney General and served until April, 1976, when he resigned to run for the office of Attorney General. Ashcroft has been admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court. He is a member of the American, the Missouri and the Cole County Bar Associations.

Ashcroft has worked diligently on behalf of the people and continues the high standard of service he began as State Auditor. During Ashcroft's administration as Attorney General, notable accomplishments have been made in the areas of consumer protection, antitrust and environmental protection. In addition, the office now publishes, as a public service, "Consumer Hotline," a monthly newspaper column warning Missouri consumers of deceptive trade practices.

Ashcroft is immediate past president of the National Association of Attorneys General. He also serves as a member of the Association's budget committee, the executive committee, and represents all attorneys general of the United States on the prestigious American Bar Association House of Delegates.

“ O L D M I S S O U ”

“Old Missou” and “Old Missouri”
Our hearts the school has won,
Fondly cling we to the mem’ry
Of old “Missouri’s Son.”
Gladly thee our hearts we tender
By the dim and flick’ring light,
Every lad a proud defender
Of the Purple and the White.
