WILLIAM FRANCIS ENGLISH
Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences
University of Missouri

Today's commencement speaker is a distinguished alumnus of the Northeast Missouri State Teachers College. He was graduated here in 1927 with majors in Political Science and History and a minor in English. He was president of the Student Council, and a member of the Historical Society, the Speech Club, the Blue Key Fraternity, and a Sigma Delta Tau (forerunner of Phi Sigma Epsilon). He was editor of the Index for a term.

Francis English was born at New Bloomfield in the "Kingdom of Callaway" and attended high school in Auxvasse. He started his teaching at Fayette where he was high school principal; he spent ten years as high school principal at Carrollton and two years as superintendent of schools at Fulton.

During these sixteen years of public school service, he was also studying at the University of Missouri from which he received the master's degree in 1931 and the doctor of philosophy degree in 1943. Since that date he has been associated with the University—assistant professor, 1943; associate professor, 1943-48; professor of history and assistant dean, 1948-54; acting dean, 1954-55; acting president, July 1 to August 1, 1961.

At the University, Dr. English is a member of Alpha Pi Zeta, honorary social science fraternity; Phi Delta Kappa, honorary education fraternity; and Omicron Delta Kappa, honorary leadership fraternity. He was president of the National Council for the Social Studies in 1949. He has been an extensive writer.
