NOW IS THE TIME to enter the NMSU Slogan Contest. Many students, faculty and staff members have submitted entries already to the Energy Conservation Advisory Committee. Some suggestions are: "The Future is N.E.W. (No Energy Waste)," "At NMSU we're conserving energy today for tomorrow's students," "Conserve Our Energies--electricity, gas, glass, metal, paper, water--Insure Our Future," and "Energy Conservation Depends on NMS-You." Deadline is Feb. 1. Entries should be submitted to Howard Morris, chairman of ECAC, Physical Plant Division, NMSU.

BLUE KEY DIRECTORIES will go on sale in the Student Union Building Concourse today through Thursday, Jan. 26, from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. The cost is 50 cents.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES CARDS will be on sale today through Friday from 9:30 to 2:30 p.m. in the Student Union Building Concourse. The card entitles free admission to 13 Student Activities Board movies, 4 mini-concerts, and $2 off the admission fee to the spring concert. Price is $5 per card.

FREE STUDY SKILLS CLASSES are now being arranged in the Reading-Study Skills Lab, located on the third floor of Pickler Memorial Library, for students interested in improving their reading speed, comprehension, or vocabulary. Lab hours are 8:30-11:30 a.m. and 1:30-4:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday. For more information stop by the lab or call DeRaye Hansen, director, at ext. 2777. Classes will begin this week.

TARGET STORE personnel manager Charles Bronaugh will be on campus Tuesday to interview any students interested in management trainee jobs. Sign up at the Placement Office, First Floor, Blanton Hall, for interview times.

STUDY AND DISCUSSION sessions begin this week under the sponsorship of the Wesley House. On Tuesday at 5:30 p.m. a nine-week Bible study of "The Way of the Cross" using the Gospel of Mark will begin at the Wesley House. On Wednesday at 4 p.m. in Room 6 of the Student Union Building, a discussion group "Interface" will begin a four-week exploration of faith in relationship to everyday experiences and study. Both sessions will be led by the Rev. Roger Jespersen. Everyone is invited to participate.

THE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM will host Missouri Western University at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday in Pershing Arena.

THE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION OF WOMEN will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in Room 5 of the Student Union Building. Guest speaker will be Dr. Ruth Towne who will speak on "The History of Feminism." All interested persons are invited to attend.

A PURPLE OMEN will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. Entertainment will include a pianist, a guitarist, and a magical act. No admission will be charged.

A ONE-ACT FARCE of Chekov's "The Marriage Proposal" will be presented as a pre-tour performance by the University Players in the Little Theatre of Baldwin Hall on Wednesday. Show times are 4:30 and 7 p.m. and no admission will be charged. During the semester the University Players will present this play at area high schools.

AN INFORMATIONAL MEETING concerning the possibility of a trip to Florida over spring break will be held at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday in Room 2 of the Student Union Building. The meeting is being held by the Student Activities Board.

REPRESENTATIVES OF THE U.S. NAVY will interview for the Navy Officer Program on Thursday, Jan. 26, and Friday, Jan. 27, at the Placement Office, First Floor, Blanton Hall. Programs emphasized are nuclear power officer candidate, aviation officer candidate, and aviation reserve officer candidate. Appointments should be made at the Placement Office.

A SPECIAL MEETING OF THE AG CLUB will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building. Larry Bragg, manager of the Kirksville MFA Exchange, will speak on the service role of the MFA and will discuss employment opportunities within the MFA Oil Company. The public is invited to attend.

PSI CHI will hold its first meeting of the semester to vote on new members and to schedule activities at 7 p.m. Thursday at the home of Dorene Novotony, 2101 South Marion, Apartment D. All members are urged to attend.

A LECTURE-RECITAL by guest composer-conductor Yahuda Yanney will be given at 8 p.m. Thursday in Baldwin Auditorium. No admission will be charged and the public is invited to attend. Yanney is a twentieth-century composer from the University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee who has conducted and composed for all mediums of music. During the day, Yanney will participate in a composition clinic which will include visits with various music classes on such items as composition and conducting techniques. These events are being sponsored by Phi Mu Alpha, a men's music fraternity.

PARKING BETWEEN the Administration/Humanities Building and Baldwin Hall is restricted for use by the handicapped and by construction vehicles. Others are asked not to park in this area which will be patrolled by Safety and Security.

STUDENTS INTERESTED in applying to be a Resident Assistant may pick up an application at the Housing Office, 101 Administration/Humanities Building.
