THE SUMMER SCHOOL SERVING SCHEDULE by American Food Management in the residence halls will not include dinner on Monday, July 3; brunch and dinner on Tuesday, July 4; dinner on Friday July 7; and dinner on Friday, Aug. 11. These meals will be served on a head count basis for contract patrons with their meal tickets and those eating on their own at the casual meal rate. No meals will be served on Saturdays, July 8 and Aug. 12. The schedule is based on 20 meals per week with no food service on Sunday evening.

SUMMER SPORTS ACTIVITIES will be discussed at a meeting to be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday in Ryle Hall Cafeteria. Guys and gals may sign up for summer softball and volleyball teams and familiarize themselves with the rules. Everyone is invited to attend.

AN ORAL INTERPRETATION WORKSHOP directed by Dr. Glenda Clyde, professor of speech, will be offered today through Friday. Registration will be from 9 a.m. through 1 p.m. today in 305 Administration/Humanities Building. The workshop may be taken for three hours of graduate or undergraduate credit. For further information, contact the Language and Literature Division.

THE CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER will be open for both summer sessions. Summer hours are from 7:15 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday through Friday. The center at Elson and Normal Streets provides children with a mid-morning snack and a noon lunch. Fees are $15 per week. To enroll a chi parents need not be affiliated with the University. For further information, contact Mrs. Judy Duden, summer director, at ext. 7108.

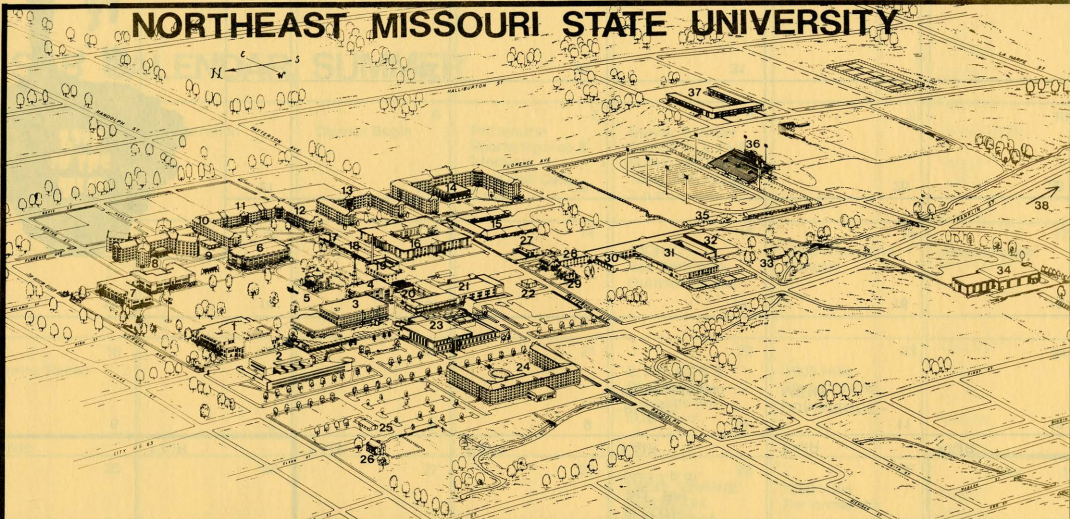

LOOK INSIDE for a summer calendar of events to keep for later reference. On the back of this welcome issue is a campus map to help locate where events will take place.
