PROVOST AND DEAN OF FACULTIES
UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI—COLUMBIA

Dr. Herbert W. Schooling was named Provost and Dean of Faculties for the Columbia campus of the University of Missouri on July 1, 1969. Dr. Schooling is the first administrator in the history of the University of Missouri to hold the title of Provost.

Since becoming affiliated with the University, Dr. Schooling has also held the administrative position of Dean of the Faculty of the College of Education and Dean of Faculties for the Columbia campus. His connection with the Columbia campus was preceded by six years as superintendent of schools in Webster Groves. He also served as superintendent of schools at Cardwell, Hayti, and North Kansas City. Dr. Schooling has taught both the elementary and secondary level, and was an Associate Professor of Education and Director of Pre-Collegiate Education at the University of Chicago for two years.

Among his various professional activities, Dr. Schooling is past president of the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges, of the Missouri Association of Secondary School Principals, and of the Missouri Association of School Administrators; a member of the Reviewing Committee of the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education and of the National Ethics Committee of the American Association of School Administrators; and has held a number of other offices in professional societies.

“OLD MISSOU”

“Old Missou” and “Old Missouri”

Our hearts the school has won,
Fondly cling thee to the mem’ry
Of old “Missouri’s Son.”

Gladly thee our hearts we tender
By the dim and flick’ring light,
Every lad a proud defender
Of the Purple and the White.

—Basil Brewer, '01.
