GIVE TODAY THE UNITED WAY

ATTACHED TO THE "NORTHEAST TODAY"
FOR FACULTY AND STAFF is a list of council representatives for the 1978-79 academic year. The names in parentheses indicate the alternate representatives.

CLASSES WILL NOT MEET FRIDAY because of the fall meeting of the Northeast Missouri Teachers Association to be held on campus. Bill Monroe, anchorman and executive producer of "Meet the Press," will give the main address at the general session at 9 a.m. in Baldwin Auditorium. In the afternoon, 22 departmental sessions will be held. About 1,500 teachers will participate in the conference with the theme, "Going Public for Education."

The ROTC Panther Drill Team color guard will raise the flag and lead the pledge of allegiance at the general session.

UNIVERSITY OFFICES, Pickler Memorial Library and the Student Union Building will maintain regular hours over the three-day weekend. All meals for hall residents will be served in Centennial Hall beginning at 4:30 p.m. Thursday and continuing through 1 p.m.
Sunday. Breakfast will be served from 8-9 a.m.; lunch will be served from 11:45 a.m. to 1 p.m.; and dinner will be served from 4:30-6 p.m. As usual, no dinner will be served on Sunday. Meals will be served in all cafeterias beginning Monday, Oct. 9.

TODAY is the last day to drop first half block courses with the instructor's code.

A BOOK SALE will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. today and 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday in 208 Laughlin Building. The sale will be sponsored by Phi Alpha Theta history honorary and proceeds will go to the Dr. David March scholarship. Anyone wishing to donate books may call Janet Cavender, club president, at ext.
3566, or Dr. Robert Schnucker, club sponsor, at ext.
3312.

APPLICATIONS FOR GRADUATION for all undergraduates completing degree requirements (both four-year and one- and two-year certificates) during the fall semester are due today in the Registrar's Office, 104 Administration/Humanities Building.

A TRUMPET RECITAL by Anne Buckner, senior, will be at 3 p.m. Sunday in Baldwin Auditorium. No admission will be charged and everyone is invited to attend.

THE "CONTEMPO" SERIES of public affairs programs with NMSU faculty members continues with Dr. Nancy Kiger, assistant professor of reading. The program may be viewed at 9 a.m. Sunday on channel 10 or heard at 8:15 a.m. the same day on WGEM-FM. Other faculty members will be interviewed in October.

A BAKE SALE will be from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday, Oct. 9, at the north door of Violette Hall. The bake sale is sponsored by the Phi Kappa Theta Little Sisters.

AN ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING of Sigma Tau Delta English honorary will be at 5 p.m. Monday, Oct. 9, in 334 Administration/Humanities Building, Dr. Connie Sutherland's office. Officers will be elected at the meeting.

ALL COLLEGIATE WOMEN are invited to attend the meeting of the American Association of University Women, Kirksville branch, at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 9, in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. The program, "(Plant) Food for Thought," will be presented by Don Pevehouse, owner of a local flower shop. For further information, call Mary J. Kohlenberg, AAUW corporate representative for NMSU, at ext. 2758.

"MULTI-LEVEL CULTURE EDUCATION" will be the presentation given by Dr. James Banks, associate professor of education at the University of Washington, at 4 and 7 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 10, in 240 Violette Hall. All students and faculty members are invited to attend either or both lectures. The presentation is sponsored by five campus education clubs and the English Club.

A MEETING for all persons interested in the Big Brother/Big Sister organization will be at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 10, in 210 Administration/Humanities Building. Students in any major may participate in this program. Big brothers and sisters spend some time each week with an underprivileged child. For more information, call coordinators Cheryl Johnson at ext. 2438 or Barb Brown at 665-4241.

STUDENTS WITH SOCCER EXPERIENCE are needed by the Kirksville Parks and Recreation Department to officiate city children's soccer league games on Saturday mornings. For more information, call Terry Lodge, director, at 665-7792.

"THE LEGEND OF HELL HOUSE" will be shown at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 10, in Baldwin Auditorium. The movie is sponsored by the 1978 fall pledges of Sigma Tau Gamma social fraternity. Admission to the show will be $1 and the proceeds will go to charity.

A GET-ACQUAINTED MEETING with Sen. Norman Merrell of the 18th District will be at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 11, in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. Refreshments will be served at the informal meeting. All faculty, staff and students, especially those from the 18th District, are invited to attend and ask questions.

A FACULTY RECITAL featuring Paul Mosteller, instructor in voice, will be at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 11, in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. He will be accompanied by Janice Saffir, instructor in piano. The program will include songs by Handel, Mozart, Wolf and Ravel, and will conclude with five arrangements of American sea chanties. Admission is free and all interested persons are invited to attend.

THE SENIOR TEST will be given the week of Oct. 9-13 in the Administration/Humanities Building for all seniors graduating in December. Seniors who have not received a letter stating the time, day and room the test will be given in should call the Testing Office, 103 A/H, at ext. 7184.

DUE TO A LARGE INCREASE in the number of lost ID cards with current meal stickers attached, the Housing contract provision authorizing collection of $15 to replace a lost meal sticker will be strictly enforced. This provision applies to all meal stickers.

THE ANNUAL HOMECOMING BANQUET will be held at 7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 13, in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. Faculty and staff members are encouraged to attend to welcome returning alumni. Tickets are $4 each. Reservations should be made by Tuesday, Oct. 10, in the Alumni Office. The University Dames will host a reception immediately following the banquet at Oak Tree Inn.
